HI, BARBIE!

Saturday's match will serve as Nashville SC's first ever Barbie Game Day™ presented by Hyundai which will champion all women both on and off the pitch by highlighting local nonprofit organizations and initiatives supporting young girls and women in Middle Tennessee. The evening will feature an all-female lineup of matchday entertainment and will include the launch of a special edition Women's History Month pin that can be purchased March 8 - 31 the NSC Team Store and online at the Nashville SC Mobile Shop. One hundred percent of proceeds from pin sales will benefit the Girls Inc. program of the YWCA which builds lasting mentoring relationships to help young girls succeed.

MOJO DOJO CASA HOUSE

Nashville SC will host the Portland Timbers for just the second time Saturday night after playing to a 2-2 draw at GEODIS Park on July 3, 2022. The clubs have met four times in Major League soccer play, including twice when Nashville was a member of the Western Conference in 2022. The Boys in Gold are OW-2L-2D all-time vs. the Oregon side.

MAKING HISTORY

Nashville Soccer Club played its first-ever MLS road match vs. the Timbers at Providence Park on March 8, 2020, just six days after a deadly tornado outbreak that significantly impacted Nashville and Middle Tennessee. Due to the emergence of the COVID-19 pandemic, the Boys in Gold wouldn't play again that season until Aug. 12 at FC Dallas.

THEY ARE KENOUGH

Three current Nashville SC players have appeared in all four of the club's matches vs. the Timbers: midfielder Hany Mukhtar (one goal) and defenders Dan Lovitz and Walker Zimmerman, who leads the club in career MLS appearances vs. Portland with 13.

HIS NAME IS SAM AND HIS JOB IS SCORE

Nashville SC forward Sam Surridge, who leads the team this season with three shots on goal and shots with six (tied with Hany Mukhtar), has scored one goal in one career match vs. the Portland Timbers on July 7, 2024 at Providence Park.

GOLD IS THE NEW GREEN (IS THE NEW PINK)

Nashville SC midfielder Bryan Acosta played for the Portland Timbers in 2023 after being acquired during the summer transfer window from the Colorado Rapids. Acosta appeared in seven MLS regular season matches for the Timbers and registered one assist.

HE'S JUST JACK

Nashville SC defender Jack Maher, who began his career as a Boy in Gold after becoming the club's first-ever MLS SuperDraft pick (second overall) in January 2020, made his 100th career regular season start last Saturday at the New York Red Bulls. Maher has appeared in 112 regular season fixtures for Nashville, scoring five goals and logging two assists in his 9,001 minutes on the pitch.

SPEED DRIVE

Nashville SC midfielder Eddi Tagseth ranks third in MLS and leads Nashville SC in total distance covered in 2025, traveling 15.7 miles in his first two matches as a Boy in Gold.

GOALKEEPER BARBIE

Nashville SC's Joe Willis is the only goalkeeper to crack the top 20 in MLS passing accuracy this season (minimum 60 passes) at 93.4% (tied for 19th).

BARBIE FROM DOWN UNDER

Nashville SC midfielder Patrick Yazbek made his season debut last Saturday at the New York Red Bulls when he entered the match as a substitute in the 58th minute after missing Nashville SC's season opener due to injury. Yazbek leads the club and ranks 10th in MLS this season with 94.7% passing accuracy (minimum 35 passes).

THE MAN I AM

Nashville SC forward Teal Bunbury, who scored vs. the Portland Timbers on Aug. 3, 2022 at Providence Park, made his season debut last Saturday at the New York Red Bulls when he entered the match as a substitute in the 74th minute.

FEEL THE KENERGY

Nashville SC centerbacks Jack Maher and Walker Zimmerman each rank in the top-10 in MLS for clearances this season with Zimmerman tied for the second-most with seven and Maher tied for fourth-most with five.

BARBIE DREAMHOUSE

Nashville SC's First Team staff includes three female members: Head Athletic Trainer Sydney Gray, who is one of just three females to hold her position in MLS, Performance Dietician Bre Cecil, and Assistant Team Administrator Rose Orlando.

RUN THE WORLD (GIRLS)

On Jan. 9, 2025, Nashville SC announced the promotion of Lindsey Paola to Chief Business Officer. As one of eight female executives acting as Chief Business Officers in MLS, Paola oversees the day-to-day business operations for Nashville SC and Huntsville City Football Club, the club's MLS NEXT Pro affiliate, and leads the strategic development and growth of the club as the region welcomes the 2025 FIFA Club World Cup™ and the 2026 FIFA World Cup to our city and country. Paola previously served as Nashville SC's Chief Operating Officer (2023-25), where she oversaw the administrative, IT, human resources, private and major events sales teams. She was promoted to Chief of Staff in 2019 following two seasons as the club's Senior Director of Club Administration as Nashville SC graduated its operations from the USL Championship to Major League Soccer.

HEAD COACH

His first win came on Sept. 14, 2024 in a 2-0 road victory over Atlanta United FC at Mercedes-Benz Stadium. Callaghan wrapped his first season with a 3-0 road win against Chicago Fire FC on MLS Decision Day 2024.

Prior to joining Nashville SC, Callaghan was an Assistant Coach with United States Men's National Team (USMNT). He began his tenure with U.S. Soccer in 2019 as a Strategy Analyst before being promoted to Assistant Coach that same year. During his time as assistant, the U.S. team captured the 2021 Concacaf Nations League Championship, 2021 Gold Cup, and reached the Round of 16 in the FIFA World Cup Qatar 2022™ with Nashville SC defender Walker Zimmerman on the roster. Additionally, forward Tyler Boyd and defender Dan Lovitz competed on the USMNT under Callaghan's tutelage between 2019 and 2024.

After serving four years as an assistant, the New Jersey native was appointed interim manager for the National Team during the summer of 2023, leading the squad to a 5W-1L-1D record that featured a Concacaf Nations League tournament title and a 2023 Concacaf Gold Cup Semi-Finals appearance. Callaghan's USMNT interim manager record includes two multi-goal wins over Canada, one over Mexico, and a +17-goal differential. Callaghan's interim period concluded Aug. 1, 2023, and he returned to his role as assistant coach for the remainder of his tenure with US Soccer.

Before his time with the USMNT, Callaghan spent seven seasons in Major League Soccer (2012-19) with the Philadelphia Union, first as an Academy Coach. Two years and one Generation adidas Cup trophy later, Callaghan was promoted midseason to Assistant Coach with the Union's First Team where he worked alongside Interim-turned-Head Coach Jim Curtin for five years (2014-19) and earned his US Soccer Pro License. He helped lead Philadelphia to MLS Cup Playoff appearances in 2016 and 2018 and the final of the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup tournament in 2014, 2015 and 2018. Callaghan also became familiar with current Boy in Gold Taylor Washington, who spent a year in the City of Brotherly Love after he was selected 23rd overall in the 2016 MLS SuperDraft by the Union.
