GAME NOTES

HOUSTON DYNAMO FC TRAVEL TO PORTLAND TIMBERS FOR SUNDAY NIGHT SOCCER MATCHUP

Houston Dynamo FC return to the Pacific Northwest for their second Sunday Night Soccer match of the season, facing the Portland Timbers on Sunday, March 30, with kickoff scheduled for 6:00 p.m. CT at Providence Park. Fans can stream the match via MLS Season Pass on Apple TV.

The Dynamo are undefeated in their last four regular season matches versus the Timbers, including three victories and goal totals of 11-3 in favor of Houston. The most recent result came in June last season, when the two sides played to a 2-2 draw at Providence Park that included a goal from midfielder Sebastian Kowalczyk.

Earlier this week, the Dynamo announced the signing of attacking midfielder Ondřej Lingr and defender Pablo Ortiz. Lingr, a regular with the Czech Republic National Team, will occupy a Designated Player spot and brings vast European experience with SK Slavia Prague, MFK Karviná, Feyenoord and MFK Karviná across top competitions, including the UEFA Champions League, UEFA Europa League and UEFA Conference League. Ortiz joins Houston on loan from FC DAC 1904 in Slovakia after the 24-year-old Colombian made 42 appearances across several top-level European clubs (FC Midtjylland, C.D. Mafra, FK Pardubice and FC DAC 1904) and began his career with one of South America's biggest clubs, América de Cali.

Houston enters Sunday Night Soccer following an important road point in a scoreless draw at Seattle Sounders FC, where the Dynamo earned their second clean sheet of the season. Goalkeeper Jimmy Maurer and midfielder Júnior Urso both made their first Dynamo league starts, while goalkeeper Blake Gillingham made his Dynamo and MLS debut in replacement of an injured Maurer in the 67th minute. It marked the first time an MLS rookie has played in goal for the Dynamo since Nov. 3, 2021 (Kyle Morton). Defender Erik Sviatchenko also made his 50th MLS regular season appearance during the match. Additionally, midfielder Nico Lodeiro made his return to Seattle, as the Uruguayan international played a pivotal role in the Sounders' success over the past decade, winning three trophies, including the MLS Cup in 2016 and 2019, as well as the Concacaf Champions League in 2022.

Portland heads into Sunday's match following a 3-0 road victory over the Colorado Rapids last weekend at DICK'S Sporting Goods Park. The Timbers took the lead in first-half stoppage time with an own goal from Colorado before extending their lead with goals from Antony and Kevin Kelsy. Portland currently sits ninth in the Western Conference standings with seven points and a record of 2-2-1 (WLD).

Three players from Houston's first team roster returned from international duty this week after representing their respective countries during this month's FIFA international window. Midfielder Jack McGlynn was called up to join the U.S. Men's National Team for the 2024-25 Concacaf Nations League Finals, where he made an appearance in the semifinal versus Panama. Midfielder Brooklyn Raines joined the U-20 U.S. Men's National Team for training camp in L'Albir, Spain, where he featured in both matches versus Mexico (2-0 victory) and Japan (1-1 draw). Midfielder Sebastian Rodriguez represented the U-18 Mexican National Team in France, where they secured a 2-0 win versus Bouches-du-Rhône, a scoreless draw with OGC Nice and a 1-1 draw with Olympique de Marseille in friendly matches.

Houston returns to Shell Energy Stadium on Saturday, April 5 to host LAFC, with kickoff scheduled for 7:30 p.m. CT. Tickets for the match and all Dynamo home matches are available via SeatGeek.

ABOUT SHELL ENERGY STADIUM

Shell Energy Stadium is a state-of-the-art, open-air stadium designed to host Houston Dynamo FC matches, Houston Dash matches and Texas Southern University football games as well as additional professional, collegiate and community sporting events, concerts, exhibitions, conventions and special events. Opened on May 12, 2012, the 340,000-square foot, 21,000-seat stadium is the first soccer-specific stadium in Major League Soccer located in a city’s downtown district.

An architecturally stunning building, the stadium features 94,000 square feet of aluminum panels on its exterior, giving it a modern and stylish appearance. Each of the panels is 50 percent open to improve air flow throughout the concourses. Canopies extend 75 feet over the stands on the east and west sides of the stadium, and a stage canopy extends 125 feet over the south end, providing shade to soccer fans and a built-in speaker setup for concerts. With its downtown location, the stadium is a part of a true ‘Stadium District,’ which includes Minute Maid Park and the Toyota Center, as well as the George R. Brown Convention Center, Discovery Green, Warehouse Live and House of Blues.

The stadium was awarded the LEED® Silver certification from the U.S. Green Building Council in December 2012. The venue has been identified as a pioneering example of new construction and sustainable design and is considered a leader in transforming the building industry.

On June 13, 2019, the stadium was officially renamed from BBVA Compass Stadium to BBVA Stadium. The new stadium name and corresponding signage change was part of BBVA’s ongoing brand unification happening across the globe. BBVA Group’s new logo and brand signals an advancement in the financial institution’s efforts become a single, global digital entity in all areas where it operates. The stadium was again renamed again in 2021 following the merger of PNC Bank and the U.S. division of BBVA.

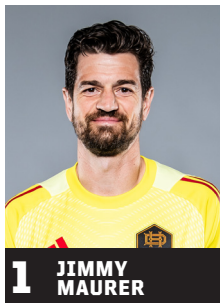

The venue reopened its doors as Shell Energy Stadium in 2023 following an agreement between Houston Dynamo Football Club and Shell Energy. Both organizations are pursuing a variety of integrated energy and decarbonization solutions at the stadium, while also collaborating on important community initiatives. This includes a near-term goal to reduce the Club’s scope one and scope two greenhouse gas emissions by 50 percent by 2026 from a 2018 base year.

BIO

Maurer joined the Dynamo in December 2024 after spending eight seasons with FC Dallas. He initially arrived in Dallas in 2017 on a one-week loan, before going on to make 75 appearances in all competitions during his time with the club. In 2024, the Lawrenceville, Georgia native featured in four regular season matches, recording two clean sheets and a season-high seven saves on the road versus the Portland Timbers. In addition to his on-field contributions, Maurer also assisted the FC Dallas front office as a Player Development Executive last season.

BIO

Escobar joined the Dynamo ahead of the 2023 campaign and quickly made an impact, helping the team lift the 2023 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup title and reach the 2023 Western Conference Final after scoring Houston's lone goal versus Sporting Kansas City in the Western Conference Semifinal. The Argentinean defender also helped Houston qualify for the MLS Cup Playoffs in consecutive years for the first time in a decade, while the team set club records for points (54) and road wins (8) last season.

BIO

Steres enters his 10th MLS season after re-signing with the Dynamo in January 2025. He has been a key contributor to Houston's achievements over the past three campaigns, helping the club secure the 2023 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup title, while also contributing two goals and two assists on the team's way to a Western Conference Final appearance. In 2024, Steres delivered on his opportunities, scoring two match-winners against both LA Galaxy and San Jose Earthquakes, while helping Houston allow just 39 goals in the regular season, the third fewest in MLS.

Quiñones joined the Dynamo on loan after two seasons in his native Colombia with Once Caldas and was then signed on a full transfer on July 13, 2023. He played a pivotal role in Houston's resurgence in 2023, helping the team win its second Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup title and advance to the Western Conference Final for the ninth time in Club history. Quiñones, unfortunately, missed the 2024 season after suffering a knee injury with the U-23 Colombian National Team at the 2024 CONMEBOL Pre-Olympic Tournament in Venezuela.

Holmes joined the Dynamo in March 2025 with extensive experience in the English Football Leagues, predominantly in the EFL Championship, where he totaled 246 appearances, 20 goals and 15 assists across stints with Huddersfield Town (2013-16 and 2020-23), Derby County (2018-21) and Preston North End (2023-25). Notably, the midfielder helped Derby County to the 2019 EFL Championship play-off final, coming up one goal short of promotion to the English Premier League versus Aston Villa. Holmes also earned two caps for the United States Men's National Team, debuting in June 2019 against Jamaica and playing again versus Venezuela before being named to the final 23-man roster for the 2019 Gold Cup. However, he was forced to withdraw from the squad prior to the start of the tournament due to injury.

The Club's MLS NEXT Pro team, Houston Dynamo 2, acquired Arzu on loan from Real Club Deportivo Espana in Honduras ahead of the 2024 season. He made an immediate impact with Dynamo Dos, scoring a goal in each of the team's first two matches of the season versus Sporting Kansas City II and LAFC 2. The forward also tallied another goal in a 2-0 win over St. Louis CITY 2. He was sidelined after picking up an injury in a match at Portland Timbers 2 in May before returning to action in September during a 2-1 victory versus Colorado Rapids 2. Overall, Arzu appeared in 13 matches (nine starts) last season, including one postseason match versus The Town FC, while netting three goals.
