POSTGAME QUOTES

Bruce Arena

On the team displaying mental and physical fortitude today after completing a whole month with only one loss in nine games:

“The team has played very well during the month of May. They’ve battled real hard. They’ve done a real good job. Martinez’s goal was obviously a very good goal.”

On his overall evaluation of the team at the halfway mark of the MLS regular season:

“I think the team is improved, and I’m looking forward to seeing what kind of team we can be in the second half of the season.”

Dave Romney

On showing resiliency today despite playing their ninth game in May:

“We definitely showed a lot of resilience in this month. Even just playing on Wednesday and this team is fresh today. We played today in a hot, humid summer day game, so the odds were stacked against us. I thought we battled well and fought hard. We came back in the 82nd minute and genuinely thought we had a chance to win the game and steal some points. So it was definitely frustrating to have them kind of just clear a ball and end up getting a PK after that. But I’m proud of how we fought. Proud of the guys who really came in and made a difference. It’s all you can ask for.”

On finally getting a break after a long month:

“A break is going to be massive physically, mentally, all of the above. We’ve definitely started to rack up some injuries toward the end of this month. Guys are fatigued who are still healthy, so these next couple of days off are going to be huge. Then we come back in. I think we play Portland and then we have another break. But honestly, getting as many guys back as possible by the time we start up MLS again, and mentally refreshing for the second half of the season. But I think what we were dealt with, with nine games in the month of May, and a couple of these weekend games where we were playing a team that didn’t have a midweek [game]. I think we can be pretty proud of ourselves for going eight games unbeaten and doing the best we could. And we utilized the entire roster, pretty much. I think everybody got minutes. I think that’s been huge for guys to play well and show what kind of talent they have when they step on the field, so a lot of positives to take.”

On playing with two rookies on both sides of the back line and their overall progress:

“I think they’ve been doing great. It’s unfortunate, the play at the end of the game, but I think for the most part, they’ve been learning a lot and improving a lot throughout the course of this season. Obviously there are mental things they’re going to learn once they get more experience but the talent is there and the hard work is there. ... It’s just learning from hard experiences like that, but they happen to the best of us.”

POSTGAME QUOTES

Bruce Arena

On the team's performance tonight: "It's a good win against a very good team. I thought Portland was dangerous throughout the game. Our guys responded. The three goals in the first half are huge. We knew they would come at us real strong to start the second half and we weathered the storm. In the last 15 to 20 minutes of the game, we settled in the right way to try to just protect our lead and get out of here with three points. We did a good job with that. They're a very good team, so we're pleased with the win."

Cristian Espinoza

On opening the scoring in the 16th minute:

"It was really important to start the game that way. We knew that we needed this victory. We need the three points tonight. We were preparing ourselves the whole week for this moment. We know when we stay together, we keep the compactness inside the field, the result will come. Tonight was a great answer."

DeJuan Jones

On dishing two assists in his home debut:

"Whenever you can get to a new club and make an impact with the scoring right away, that's helpful. And I'm building chemistry quickly with my teammates. They make it really easy. It's fun playing with them, so to get the 4-1 win is good. We use the momentum to keep getting more wins."

On having a previous rapport with head coach Bruce Arena in New England:

"Definitely. Working with guys that believe in me and have coaching before, I know what to expect, and they know how to coach me, so it's been good."

Head-to-Head

All-Time Record: 7-19-10 (41 GF, 61 GA); All-Time Road Record: 0-14-4 (14 GF, 37 GA); Streak: SJ W2 (SJ 4-1 POR on 5/3 in MLS; SJ 1-0 POR on 5/20 in USOC R16)

Last Road Win: N/A; Last Road Draw: Aug. 4, 2021 (POR 1-1 SJ); Last Road Meeting: May 15, 2024 (POR 4-2 SJ)

San Jose has never won in Portland. They led 2-0 in 2024 but a controversial red card for defender Bruno Wilson (that was rescinded postgame) led to a Timbers 3-2 comeback win.

The Earthquakes trio of Mark-Anthony Kaye (4g/2a, 12 GP), Chicho Arango (3g/3a, 8 GP) and Cristian Espinoza (3g/3a, 15 GP) have a combined total of 18 goal contributions (10g/8a) in 35 matches against Portland. Quakes forward Josef Martínez boasts two goals in just three meetings with the Timbers. Defender DeJuan Jones has tallied three assists against Portland in just two matches.

CAPTAIN CRISTIAN CAN'T STOP PRODUCING

Forward and team captain Cristian Espinoza leads the league with eight assists. He is currently on pace to record 10 or more assists in MLS play and more than 20 goal contributions in all competitions for the fourth straight season.

Espinoza ended his run of consecutive games after his start on May 14 with a current league-high and club record of 122. The streak was third longest in MLS history and second among all field players.

Quakes reach U.S. Open Cup Quarterfinals for the first time since 2017

The San Jose Earthquakes defeated the Portland Timbers 1-0 in extra time on Tuesday, May 20, in the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Round of 16 to run their unbeaten streak to six matches in all competitions.

In the 116th minute, San Jose achieved the breakthrough, as Preston Judd dragged his defender long enough to play Mark-Anthony Kaye, who directed the ball toward goal. The ball was deflected by Skahan into the net to send the Black and Blue to the final eight of the tournament for the first time since 2017.

RECURRING SEASON STORYLINES

BRUCE IS BACK

Bruce Arena has returned to MLS as Earthquakes Head Coach and Sporting Director. With five MLS Cups and four Supporters' Shields, Arena is the winningest coach in league history. The 2025 season marks his 20th season coaching at domestic club level, with stops at the New England Revolution (2019-23), LA Galaxy (2008-16), New York Red Bulls (2006-07) and D.C. United (1996-98).

NEW IN THE BLACK & BLUE

Arena wasted no time retooling the roster, acquiring/signing 15 new faces from the previous year. Twelve have made their Quakes debut in 2025: Veterans Chicho Arango, Ian Harkes, Mark-Anthony Kaye, Josef Martínez, Dave Romney, Earl Edwards Jr., DeJuan Jones, Noel Buck and four rookies making their MLS debuts—Beau Leroux, Reid Roberts, Max Floriani and Nick Fernandez.

Counting new additions DeJuan Jones and Noel Buck, four current Quakes played for Arena at his previous stop in New England: Harkes, Kaye, Romney and Edwards Jr. Nick Lima, who actually started his career as a Homegrown signing with San Jose, also played for the Revs in 2024, but after Arena's tenure.

FROM SAN JOSE NATIVE TO SURPRISE OF THE SEASON

Beau Leroux, 21, was selected with the 42nd overall pick of the second round of the 2024 MLS SuperDraft out of San Jose State University. Last season, the midfielder and San Jose native was a fixture on the Quakes' MLS NEXT Pro team, The Town FC, scoring five goals and making 24 appearances (23 starts) in the regular season and postseason combined. Just one day after signing with the first team, he made his Quakes debut in the starting lineup on Feb. 22 against Real Salt Lake and immediately notched an assist. On April 29 against Seattle Sounders FC, he scored his first goal to secure a 1-1 draw for San Jose. On May 14, he notched his second goal and third assist of the season helping his club draw Inter Miami CF 3-3 and earning his first MLS Team of the Matchday honors.

SOUTH AMERICAN FANTASTIC FOUR ... ACTIVATED

A pair of renowned international forwards—Venezuelan Josef Martínez (free agent, previously with CF Montréal) and Colombian Cristian "Chicho" Arango (trade with Real Salt Lake)—were acquired by Sporting Director Bruce Arena in the offseason to provide some firepower. The prolific pair scored a combined 31 goals in all competitions the previous season. They are expected team up with the Argentine duo of Cristian Espinoza and a now healthy Hernán López.

THE RETURN OF HERNÁN LÓPEZ

Hernán López, a creative midfielder and grand-nephew of global icon Diego Maradona who had notched 12 goal contributions in all competitions since arriving from Argentina's Godoy Cruz last May (9g/3a), underwent right shoulder surgery March 14. López made his return to first-team action in May 7's U.S. Open Cup Round of 32 win over Sacramento Republic FC, logging 24 minutes off the bench.

JOSEF CLIMBING THE CHARTS

With his league-leading seventh MLS career hat trick on April 6, and his goal against Columbus Crew on April 26, he increased his career goal total to 122, Josef Martínez surpassed Bradley Wright-Phillips (117) for sixth on MLS' all-time scoring chart. Next up: Jaime Moreno (133). Martínez leads all active players.

RAINING GOALS

The Quakes are currently third in 2025 MLS club goals with 34 goals in 17 games. The trio of Chicho Arango (9g/2a), Cristian Espinoza (4g/8a) and Josef Martínez (7g/1a) have a combined total of 31 goal contributions (20g/11a). San Jose only trails Chicago Fire FC (35) and Inter Miami CF (36).

EXTENDING RECORDS

After his April 6 hat trick against D.C. United, Josef Martínez extended his league-record tally to seven. The next closest total is five, accomplished by four players including Quakes legend Chris Wondolowski.

By scoring the game-winning goal against the Portland Timbers on May 3, Cristian Espinoza became the third active player to record at least 15 game-winning goals and 15 game-winning assists. He is the 21st player overall in MLS history to achieve this milestone.

LAMAR HUNT U.S. OPEN CUP

On May 20, the Quakes defeated the Portland Timbers 1-0 at home to advance to the U.S. Open Cup quarterfinals for the first time since 2017.

Community Highlights

Saturday Night Lights

The Quakes, in collaboration with Mayor Matt Mahan, the City of San Jose and Santa Clara County, along with Catholic Charities of Santa Clara County and other community organizations, launched Saturday Night Lights (SNL) presented by CalHOPE, a 10-week pilot program that offers middle and high school youth in underserved San Jose communities a safe, supportive space to play futsal soccer on Friday and Saturday nights. The program kicked off on Friday, April 11, at LeyVa Middle School in the Meadowfair neighborhood and then on Saturday, April 12, at CCSCC Washington United Youth Center. Games will take place weekly for 10 weeks.

America Scores

"Our partnership strengthened because the Earthquakes had the right people in position who understood the mission alignment and value of working with America SCORES," said Angela Bailey, SCORES Director of Corporate and Community Engagement. "The Quakes' involvement goes beyond financial support. They have actively participated in various aspects of SCORES programs, including volunteering, sending their players to events to inspire the kids, and providing access to games through their Tickets for Kids program."

Quakes Unified

The Quakes Special Olympics Unified Team consists of 23 players, ages 16-25, both with and without intellectual disabilities. Partnering with Special Olympics Northern California, the Unified game aims to provide athletes of all ability levels the chance to play and be part of a team while learning skills such as being a good teammate, winning with grace and encouraging others to carry positivity into their everyday lives.

COACHING STAFF

Dave Sarachan comes to San Jose as an accomplished leader in his own right, having won the MLS Coach of the Year award (2003), the Supporters' Shield (2003) and the U.S. Open Cup twice (2003, 2006) as head coach of Chicago Fire FC from 2002-07. Most recently, he was an assistant coach for Maccabi Tel Aviv, winning the Israeli Premier League and qualifying for the UEFA Champions League in his lone season with the Yellows (2023-24). Sarachan will be reuniting with Arena for the sixth time, having previously served as an assistant coach on his staff at club level with the Galaxy (2008-16) and D.C. United (1997-99), as well as for two different eras on the U.S. Men's National Team (1999-2002, 2017) and the University of Virginia (1984-87). Alongside Arena, Sarachan has won four MLS Cups (1998, 2011, 2012, 2014), two Supporters' Shields (2010, 2011), one Concacaf Champions Cup (1998), one Copa Interamericana (1998) and two Concacaf Gold Cups (2002, 2017). During that second spell with the USMNT, Sarachan succeeded Arena as interim head coach (2017-18). A native of Rochester, N.Y., Sarachan possesses further head coaching experience with the Puerto Rico national team (2021-22), North Carolina FC in USL Championship (2018-20) and collegiately at Cornell University (1988-97).

Shalrie Joseph joins Arena for the second time after serving as his assistant coach in New England (2022-23) and as an assistant for the club's Supporters' Shield-winning campaign in 2021 while coaching various age groups in the Revolution Academy (2020-22). A native of Grenada who earned 20 caps and scored one goal with them as a player, Joseph took the helm as head coach of his national team from 2018-19. He eventually led The Spice Boys toward qualification for the 2021 Concacaf Gold Cup and promotion to League A in the 2019-20 Concacaf Nations League. As a standout midfielder who played 13 MLS seasons (2003-15)—11 with the Revs—Joseph was selected eight consecutive times for the MLS All-Star Game (2004-11) and received four MLS Best XI nods (2005, 2007-09). In N.E., he was teammates with current Quakes assistants Steve Ralston and Adin Brown, with the full trio overlapping from 2003-04. Joseph, a St. John's University alum, ended up playing in three MLS Cup finals (2005-07) for the Revs, capturing the North American SuperLiga in 2008 as well as the U.S. Open Cup in 2007.

Steve Ralston originally joined the Earthquakes as an assistant coach in 2015 after four years in the same capacity with Houston Dynamo FC. He took over as interim head coach of the Quakes for the final six games of 2018. After three years away, he returned to San Jose as an interim assistant coach in 2022. A native of St. Louis and Florida International University alumnus, Ralston retired from MLS in 2010 as the league's all-time leader in assists (135), games played (378), starts (372), and minutes (33,143). He scored 76 goals over 13 MLS seasons and played in four MLS Cup finals for New England, serving as captain (2007-09) and winning the North American SuperLiga in 2008 and the U.S. Open Cup in 2007. Ralston was named an MLS All-Star seven times and received MLS Best XI recognition three times (1999, 2000, 2002). At international level, he earned 36 caps for the U.S. (1997-2007) and scored four goals, winning the 2007 Concacaf Gold Cup.

Adin Brown returns to the Earthquakes as goalkeeper coach. Brown most recently served as goalkeeper coach for Chicago Fire FC (2020-22). Prior to joining Chicago, Brown was goalkeeper coach for the Portland Timbers (2015-17) and Timbers2 (2018-19), helping the club win its first MLS Cup in 2015. He also served in the same role for the University of Portland (2013-15). Brown, a native of Pleasant Hill, California, and graduate of De La Salle High School, attended the College of William & Mary and was just the third goalkeeper in NCAA history to be named a First-Team All-American twice. The third overall pick in the 2000 MLS SuperDraft, Brown appeared 85 times over seven seasons, making his mark with New England (2002-04) where he posted a 1.42 goals against average over three years and had the Revs on the brink of winning the 2002 MLS Cup. He also played abroad for Aalesund FK (2005-09), helping lead them to the Norwegian top tier in 2007. Internationally, Brown was the U.S. starting keeper throughout qualification for the 2000 Summer Olympics but missed the final competition due to injury.
