COACHING CAREER

Zanotta also helped Dallas set three outgoing transfer records with the sales of Homegrown products Bryan Reynolds to A.S. Roma in 2021 and Ricardo Pepi to FC Augsburg in 2022, and again breaking the record transfer fee with Alan Velasco in 2025.

At Grêmio, Zanotta oversaw the planning and execution of many of the club's technical operations including player acquisitions, hiring, as well as contract negotiations and renewals. Aside from the club's day-to-day operations, Zanotta endeavored to create a positive atmosphere by aligning the players and management with the club's executive and technical commission. He also served as the club's official representative in meetings with the South American Football Federation (CONMEBOL), soccer's governing body for the continent.

Zanotta served as sporting director for Santos FC from 2012 to 2015 before transitioning into an executive director position at Sport Recife. A trained lawyer, Zanotta's connection to the sports industry emerged when he began working on player training contracts for the Brazilian Football Federation (CBF) and other Brazilian soccer clubs. To further his career in soccer, Zanotta enrolled in the prestigious FIFA Master program, receiving an MBA in Management, Law and Humanities of Sport in 2010. Zanotta is currently completing the FIFA Diploma in Club Management which is aimed at providing club executives from all around the world with the latest practical know-how and insights from the industry, covering key areas in the successful management of football clubs.
