#SKCvPOR: HEAD-TO-HEAD

Sporting Kansas City (2-1-3, 9 pts.) returns home this weekend to take on the Portland Timbers (2-3-1, 7 pts.) at Children's Mercy Park this Sunday afternoon coming off an excellent 3-1 victory over Toronto FC at BMO Field last Saturday.

Sporting is 9-7-6 all-time against the Timbers in the regular season, and have lost just five of their last 18 matches in all competitions Portland, however Sporting are also 2-4-2 in their last eight against the Timbers.

The two teams split the season series in 2023, with Sporting first opening the campaign with a postponed match in Portland that saw the club take a 1-0 loss at Providence Park. Originally scheduled for Saturday, Feb. 25, the game was postponed to Monday, Feb. 27 following severe weather in Oregon. Despite dominating much of the contest, Juan Mosquera's early goal was enough to sink Sporting on opening night.

Sporting returned the favor in the next meeting at Children's Mercy Park on May 28, 2023, cruising to a 4-1 victory. Franck Boli gave the Timbers an early lead but Erik Thommy's thunderous effort leveled the score before halftime. SPORTING KANSAS CITY NEWS AND NOTES

IMMEDIATE BOUNCE BACK

Sporting Kansas City bounced back from the club's first defeat of the 2024 season with an impressive 3-1 victory over Toronto FC at BMO Field last Saturday night. Just a week after letting a 2-0 lead slip to fall 3-2 to the Galaxy at home, Sporting put those demons to rest with a dominant performance against TFC and now enters a stretch of three consecutive home matches from April 7-20 as the squad looks to surge up the standings.

The result was made all the more impressive since Toronto had conceded just two goals in their first five matches this season before Sporting fired three into the Canadian's net in the second half. The result extended a remarkable streak where the club has not lost at BMO Field since April 26, 2009, when Peter Vermes had not yet become Kansas City's manager. Since 2010, Sporting is 5-0-4 at the stadium with their only loss up north coming on March 9, 2013 in a match played at Rogers Centre.

With 22-year-old Jake Davis and 20-year-old Alenis Vargas on the scoresheet, Saturday marked the eighth regular-season match in club history with multiple SKC goalscorers under the age of 23 and the first time since October 17, 2018 when Daniel Salloi (age 22) and Gianluca Busio (age 16) scored in a 4-1 win at Vancouver.

TUSSLING WITH THE TIMBERS

Sporting Kansas City returns home this weekend to host the Portland Timbers at Children's Mercy Park on Sunday afternoon coming off a bounce back victory over Toronto FC at BMO Field on Saturday night. The Timbers on the other hand started the season with two wins and a draw but have now lost three straight heading into Sunday's encounter.

Sporting and Portland split the season series in 2023, first opening the campaign with a 1-0 loss at Providence Park on Monday, Feb. 27. Originally schedule for Saturday, Feb. 25, the game was postponed two days following severe weather in Oregon. Sporting dominated much of that match but were undone by an early goal from Portland's Juan Mosquera that was enough to seal all three points for the hosts.

Sporting claimed a home win of their own on May 28, 2023, producing a resounding 4-1 come-from-behind victory after Franck Boli had given the Timbers an early lead. Erik Thommy equalized with the club's Goal of the Year before halftime before Daniel Salloi, an own goal and Felipe Hernandez sealed the points in the second half.

Sporting leads the all-time regular-season series with the Timbers 9-7-6, including a 5-1-4 mark at Children's Mercy Park where Portland hasn't won in the regular-season since 2013.

WALTER SCORES STUNNER ON MILESTONE NIGHT

Sporting Kansas City midfielder Remi Walter marked a special personal milestone with a brilliant goal during Saturday night's 3-1 victory over Toronto FC at BMO Field - culminating with a spot on the bench of the MLS Team of the Matchday.

Walter fired home the opening goal with a stunning strike from 25 yards in the 57th minute of the contest. The goal came on a night where Walter reached 100 regular-season appearances for Sporting KC, becoming the 41st player in club history and sixth on the active roster to make a century of appearances in the regular season.

DAVIS STRIKES FOR FIRST MLS GOAL

Sporting Kansas City Homegrown defender Jake Davis enjoyed a momentous night in his burgeoning career on Saturday, tallying his first MLS goal with what would turn out to be the game-winner in the 3-1 victory over Toronto FC at BMO Field.

Davis received a pass from Willy Agada 25 yards from goal, took a clean first touch out of his feet and slammed a swerving effort beyond the reach of TFC goalkeeper Luka Gavran to make the score 2-0 in the 64th minute of the match.

Davis scored his first goal for Sporting in his 46th competitive appearance for the club, while he became the eighth Sporting KC Academy product to score in a competitive match for the first team joining Kevin Ellis, Daniel Salloi, Gianluca Busio, Jaylin Lindsey, Wan Kuzain, Cam Duke and Felipe Hernandez.

The 22-year-old - who also tallied his team-leading third assist of the 2024 campaign in the win - was named to the MLS Team of the Matchday and also nominated for MLS Player of the Matchday and Goal of the Matchday.

VARGAS OFF THE MARK FOR THE FIRST TEAM

Sporting Kansas City youngster Alenis Vargas put a bow on the club's impressive 3-1 victory over Toronto FC at BMO Field last Saturday night, bagging the third and final goal of the night in the 83rd minute.

Vargas received a pass from Jake Davis before knocking the ball around TFC defender Shane O'Neill, burning him for pace and slotting low beyond Luka Gavran for his first MLS goal for the club.

Vargas, who joined the Honduras National Team for the first time last month, scored six goals and added five assists for SKC II in MLS NEXT Pro last season while on loan from Costa Rican club Futbol Consultants Desamparados before signing with the first team on a permanent deal in the offseason.

AGADA CONTINUES REMARKABLE PRODUCTION UP FRONT

Sporting Kansas City forward Willy Agada continued his fine recent form this past weekend, bagging the game-winning assist in the club's 3-1 victory over Toronto FC at BMO Field on Saturday night.

Agada, who battled the three-man TFC backline all 78 minutes he was on the field, received a pass from Daniel Salloi and laid it off to an onrushing Jake Davis who fired home the team's second goal in the 64th minute of the match.

The assist was Agada's first of the season and third in Sporting Blue, having last provided an assist in a 2-2 road draw with the LA Galaxy on Sept. 4, 2022. The assist came off the back of his first goal of the 2024 campaign the previous week, when he scored in the 3-2 loss against the Galaxy on March 23 while making his first start of the season.

The Nigerian frontman has now recorded 16 goal contributions (13 goals and three assists) in just 19 starts across all competitions for the club since August of 2022, averaging a goal contribution every 119 minutes.

VERMES NAMED COACH OF THE MATCHDAY

Sporting Kansas City Manager Peter Vermes was honored as the coach of the MLS Team of the Matchday this previous week after guiding his side to a comprehensive 3-1 victory on the road against Toronto FC at BMO Field.

Prior to Saturday night, Toronto had conceded just two goals in their first five matches of the season before Sporting more than doubled that in the second half. Vermes now has a 12-1-6 regular season record against Toronto with the lone loss coming on March 9, 2013 at Rogers Centre.

Sporting KC Manager Peter Vermes

Thoughts on the game...

"I think the first half, we played very well, to be honest with you. I thought we created great, great chances in transition. Easily should have been 2-0 up at halftime, but the mentality to defend - because a few guys on their team came back from injury which they inserted at different times of the game which posed some challenges through the run of play, and it was like we called timeout and made some adjustments and I thought that the players within the game were very adaptable and dealt with the game really well. I'm a little bit upset with the fact that we didn't get a shutout. We deserved a shutout. But to get three goals on the road to a team that's been playing as well as they have, they were big points for us and then obviously they're bonus points because they're out of conference, so that was huge."

On bouncing back from last week...

"I think the guys feel confident in the things that they're doing and, and I think they were, easily said, they were a little bit, I guess, embarrassed. We were all embarrassed with the result last week because we should have finished that game out 2-0 or even more. We know that we missed some chances and we also took our foot off the gas pedal when they scored their goal. So it was great. As I said this before, the mentality of the group is pretty good and strong and it was a tremendous result away from home, like I said, against a team that I think has been playing very well and their coach has done a good job in turning around the team in regards to their mentality and attitude."

On Alenis Vargas' performance...

"It's the thing that we talked about in preseason and we've been talking with him - it was a shame that he had to go away with the national team and not really play because we could've used him here - but I think all these experiences are great for him. Today he showed what he can do against teams because if he wants to get out there and go, he can. He has a good nose for the goal as well."

SPORTING KC AND CHILDREN'S MERCY KANSAS CITY CONTINUE TO IMPACT LOCAL COMMUNITY

A leading independent children's health organization dedicated to holistic care, translational research, educating caregivers and breakthrough innovation to create a world of well-being for all children, Children's Mercy Kansas City began a 10-year partnership with Sporting KC in 2016. Children's Mercy provides the highest level of care for children from birth through the age of 21. U.S. News & World Report has repeatedly ranked Children's Mercy as one of "America's Best Children's Hospitals."

Children's Mercy
KANSAS CITY

The comprehensive partnership between Sporting KC and Children's Mercy Kansas City – which includes naming rights to Sporting KC's world-class stadium, Children's Mercy Park, as well as the Sporting KC II and Sporting KC Academy complex at Swope Soccer Village – is also at the forefront of Sporting's state-of-the-art training ground at Compass Minerals National Performance Center. In a first-of-its-kind collaboration between a professional sports team, a national sports federation and a sports medicine provider, the facility opened in 2018 and features the Children's Mercy Sports Medicine Center alongside Sporting Kansas City and U.S. Soccer.

Children's Mercy Kansas City is also the official health care and sports medicine provider for the Sporting Kansas City Academy and Compass Minerals National Performance Center as part of a multi-faceted partnership that focuses on the following three components to impact the local community:

1. Strengthening community

- The partnership directly supports The Victory Project, Sporting's foundation to help children - including those with cancer and disabilities – through all of life's challenges.
- Sporting KC players and staff engage with, encourage and inspire Children's Mercy patients throughout the year during hospital visits and special events.
- FLEET, an innovative team of remote experience robots operated via an iPad, regularly attends Sporting KC home matches to provide an all-access interactive experience for patients at Children's Mercy. Manufactured by Double Robotics, the robot allows users to enjoy two-way live audio and video captured from a 150-degree wide-angle lens while navigating to control their own VIP behind-the-scenes journey.
- Launched in 2018, the RED CARD campaign addresses one of the most significant social issues impacting children nationwide by empowering youth and adults to prevent and intervene in bullying. Through school assemblies and community-wide messaging, the RED CARD initiative aims to reach children, parents, teachers and coaches who have daily opportunities to create supportive environments and stop bullying in its tracks. In 2023 and 2024, Sporting and Children's Mercy teamed up to provide 90 students at 30 local elementary and middle schools with SKC jerseys on National Random Acts of Kindness Day as part of a Kindness In The Schools (K.I.T.S.) initiative.

2. Improving access to pediatric-trained sports medicine

- The Children's Mercy Sports Medicine Center at Village West is located inside Compass Minerals National Performance Center and offers a full range of sports medicine services, resources and programming for youth athletes. More than two million high-school athletes and 3.5 million children under age 14 are injured each year in the U.S. playing sports. Only a small percentage are treated by pediatric-trained sports medicine specialists who truly understand the youth's growing body, developing brain and unique psychosocial stressors.

3. Protecting youth athletes and educating parents and coaches

- The partnership provides athletic training, rehabilitation and conditioning programs for the Sporting KC Academy's six teams at Swope Soccer Village, which hosts Sporting KC II home matches as well as year-round athletic leagues, tournaments and other marquee events.

MANAGER & SPORTING DIRECTOR | PETER VERMES

Peter Vermes is in his 16th season as Sporting Kansas City Manager in 2024 and is the longest-tenured active head coach in MLS. He is the team's longest-serving manager and his 240 coaching victories in all competitions are the most club history. During his tenure, he has won four major trophies – the 2012, 2015 and 2017 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cups and the 2013 MLS Cup championship – and finished atop the Eastern Conference regular-season standings in 2011 and 2012, as well as the Western Conference in 2018 and 2020. His three U.S. Open Cup championships are the third most in Open Cup history. He is the first coach in club history to lead Sporting KC to eight straight post-season appearances, as well as the only person to ever win the MLS Cup as both a player and a coach with the same team. His 197 regular-season wins top the club's all-time chart and rank third most in MLS history. He passed his former coach Bob Gansler as the winningest manager in team history with a 3-1 win over Real Salt Lake on Aug. 12, 2015, his 109th victory in all competitions.

On August 4, 2018, Vermes coached his 302nd MLS regular-season game with Sporting KC, becoming the league's all-time leader in games coached for one club. He was named the first-ever MLS Sporting Executive of the Year by his peers in 2018. Vermes has coached 565 total games during his Kansas City coaching career, most in club history.

With over 15 years of service at Sporting KC, Vermes is one of the longest serving managers in world soccer. Among all leagues with an average attendance of 10,000+, Vermes ranks second, only behind Bundesliga side FC Heidenheim's Frank Schmidt (Sept. 17, 2007 – present). Among the top 126 leagues in the world as denoted by the CIES Football Observatory in March 2022, Vermes' tenure at ranks as the fifth longest active run.

Vermes oversees all soccer operations for Sporting KC, including the active roster, Sporting Kansas City II (MLS NEXT Pro) and the Sporting KC Academy. Vermes entered MLS ahead of its inaugural season in 1996 and retired from the league in 2002, closing out his playing career in Kansas City after stints with the New York/New Jersey MetroStars and Colorado Rapids.

Following a standout high school career in which he was named New Jersey Player of the Year, Vermes was a star forward and All-American at Rutgers University. After college, Vermes represented the United States in the 1988 Olympics in Seoul, Korea, and was named 1988 Chevrolet U.S. Male Soccer Athlete of the Year for his efforts.

Vermes was an integral part of a young U.S. team at the 1990 World Cup in Italy, where he nearly scored against the host Azzurri. It was the first time the U.S. had qualified for the World Cup in 40 years and set the stage for the progress of the U.S. National Team. In 1989 and 1990, Vermes became the first American to play in the Hungarian and Dutch First Divisions, playing for Raba ETO and FC Volendam, respectively. He later spent five years with Figueres of the Spanish Second Division.

For MLS's inaugural season in 1996, Vermes served as captain of the New York/New Jersey MetroStars. In 1997, he was traded to the Colorado Rapids for current Sporting KC Assistant Coach Kerry Zavagnin and played in Denver through the 1999 season, leading the Rapids to the 1997 MLS Cup Final.

Vermes joined Kansas City in 2000 for what would be the most successful season of his MLS career. During his first year in Kansas City, he anchored one of the best defenses in league history and won MLS Defender of the Year honors in helping lead the Wizards to the 2000 MLS Cup Championship. ASSISTANT COACH | KERRY ZAVAGNIN

Kerry Zavagnin currently holds the MLS record as he enters his 25th season with one club as a player or coach. Zavagnin first joined Kansas City in 2000 as a holding midfielder and was an integral part of the club's midfield for the next nine seasons, during which time he helped lead the Wizards to MLS Cup (2000) and U.S. Open Cup (2004) Championships. He was named to the MLS All-Star team and the Best XI in 2004. Zavagnin's primary duties as an assistant include scouting, developing Sporting Kansas City's younger players, breaking down film and assisting with training sessions. He started his professional career with the MetroStars, where he played in 39 games over two seasons. After spending one season with the Lehigh Valley Steam (USL-1), Zavagnin came to KC in 2000. He played 237 games and logged 20,516 minutes for Kansas City, setting team records in both categories before being overtaken by Matt Besler early in 2018. He scored eight goals and added 22 assists in his nine seasons in KC. Zavagnin was named Team Defender of the Year in 2001. On top of his club success in Kansas City, Zavagnin also appeared 21 times for the U.S. Men's National Team. He recorded one assist for the U.S., who went 15-2-4 when Zavagnin featured.

ASSISTANT COACH | ZORAN SAVIC

Zoran Savic joined Sporting Kansas City late in the 2009 season after a 30-year career at all levels of the game in the United States. A native of Gornji Milanovac, Yugoslavia, Savic began his journey through American soccer with the Buffalo Stallions of the Major Indoor Soccer League in 1980. Savic would go on to star for several MISL teams, with his most prosperous period coming with the Kansas City Comets, with whom he scored 70 goals in just over 100 appearances from 1982-1984. After retiring as a player in 1991, Savic turned his attention to coaching in the indoor game. Savic led the Kansas City Attack from 1992-1996, winning Coach of the Year honors for the 1994-1995 season while also serving as the team's General Manager. Savic later coached the Kansas City Comets from 2000-2005. In 2007 Savic switched to the outdoor game, joining Chivas USA as an assistant to then-head coach Preki before moving into the commentary booth for Kansas City matches in 2008 and 2009. Savic's career as a commentator was cut short, however, when newly installed Manager Peter Vermes tabbed Savic to be part of his coaching staff late in the 2009 season.

ASSISTANT COACH | ASH WALLACE

Ash Wallace has served on Sporting Kansas City's technical staff since 2012, aiding the first team coaching staff in a variety of roles. Wallace, originally from England, helps scout and develop game plans for upcoming opponents, assists in planning and executing training sessions and provides valuable analysis for coaches and players regarding strategy. Wallace holds a U.S. Soccer A License. Wallace's first involvement with the club came in August 2012 when he was contracted to produce a detailed scouting report on Seattle Sounders FC ahead of the U.S. Open Cup Final, helping Sporting claim their first of four major titles during a trophy-laden decade. Prior to joining Sporting KC, Wallace was a member of the Preston North End coaching staff and also served as an opposition scout for Fleetwood Town in his native England. Earlier in his career, he worked with Preston North End's women's academy teams and Penwortham Boys academy teams while earning a Degree in Sports Coaching from the University of Central Lancashire.

GOALKEEPER COACH | ALEC DUFTY

Alec Dufty is in his ninth season with Sporting Kansas City having been introduced to the organization as the Sporting KC II goalkeeper coach in the side's inaugural season in 2016. In his first season working with the Sporting KC first team, starting goalkeeper Tim Melia enjoyed a record-breaking season where he was named the 2017 MLS Goalkeeper of the Year. A former MLS player, Dufty began his playing career with the New York Red Bulls in 2009, making one appearance before joining the MLS reserve goalkeeper pool. In 2010, Dufty joined USSF D2 Pro League side AC St. Louis, making 30 appearances before returning to MLS with the Chicago Fire in late 2010. He announced his retirement at the conclusion of the 2011 season. Dufty then took to coaching, first working with Florida Gulf Coast University and then the University of Illinois at Chicago. In 2015, Dufty served as goalkeeper coach for Toronto FC II in their inaugural USL Championship season.

DIRECTOR, SPORTS PERFORMANCE & SCIENCE | JOEY HARTY

Joey Harty was named Sporting Kansas City's Director of Sports Performance and Science ahead of the 2020 season, stepping up from his role as assistant fitness coach which he held from 2018-2019. Harty manages all aspects of the club's performance department from the academy to the senior team. He oversees day-to-day training plans on and off the field, including work in the weight room, soccer session planning, on-field movement training, data analysis and more, aiming to optimize player health and performance. Harty joined Sporting's organization in January 2016, serving as a fitness coach for the Sporting Kansas City Academy before spending the 2017 season as head fitness coach for Sporting KC II. The Colorado native then transitioned to assistant fitness coach for Sporting's first team in January 2018 before landing his current role with the club. Prior to arriving in Kansas City, Harty worked for Phoenix Rising FC and Grand Canyon University in Phoenix, Arizona. Harty attended Grand Canyon from 2010-2014, played for the men's soccer team from 2010-2012 and graduated with a bachelor's degree in Kinesiology and Exercise Science. In addition to holding several professional licenses and certifications in athletic performance, Harty is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength and Conditioning Association.
