SPORTING KANSAS CITY NEWS AND NOTES

BUOYED BY OPEN CUP VICTORY

Sporting Kansas City enjoyed a much-needed victory on Tuesday night, cruising to a 4-0 victory over FC Tulsa in the U.S. Open Cup Round of 16 at Children's Mercy Park behind goals from Felipe Hernandez (2), Stephen Afrifa and Marinos Tzionis.

Sporting, who are winless in seven in MLS regular-season action, hit a season-high with four goals in Tuesday's victory. Sporting extended an impressive recent run in the Open Cup with 27 victories since the start of 2012 - the most of any team in American soccer. Sporting's form has been especially excellent at home where the club has advanced on 14 straight occasions in the competition dating back to 2015.

Sporting is in the midst of a stretch that will see the team play five matches in the space of 15 days from May 18 through June 1. Following Saturday's match against Portland, Sporting will host fellow Cascadia foe the Vancouver Whitecaps at Children's Mercy Park on Wednesday before traveling to face Minnesota United FC at Allianz Field next Saturday.

PAYBACK IN PORTLAND

Sporting Kansas City will be looking to set the record straight this weekend when the team heads to the Pacific Northwest to take on the Portland Timbers at Providence Park on Saturday night. Sporting is coming off a morale-boosting 4-0 victory over FC Tulsa in the U.S. Open Cup Round of 16 on Tuesday night, while Portland fell 2-1 on the road to Minnesota United in their last outing on Saturday night.

Saturday's match is the second and final meeting of the regular season between Sporting and the Timbers, with the two sides playing out a wild 3-3 draw at Children's Mercy Park on April 7. Willy Agada scored twice in the first half either side of a Dany Rosero goal to put Sporting into a commanding 3-0 lead heading into the interval. Moments after Agada missed a penalty kick in the second half, Portland roared back into the game and scored three times in 17 minutes through Evander, Felipe Mora and Eric Miller to salvage a draw.

Sporting last visited Providence Park in the 2023 season opener, falling to a 1-0 defeat on Feb. 27, 2023. The game was initially scheduled for Feb. 25 but was postponed two days due to severe weather in the Pacific Northwest. Juan Mosquera scored early for the Timbers and despite Sporting out-shooting Portland on their own ground 12-7, Peter Vermes' side was unable to find an equalizer.

Sporting leads the all-time series with Portland 9-7-7, including a 4-6-2 mark on the road.

HERNANDEZ TALLIES BRACE IN OPEN CUP

Sporting Kansas City Academy product Felipe Hernandez produced a match-winning performance from midfield on Tuesday night, scoring a pair of goals to lead his side into the U.S. Open Cup Quarterfinals following a 4-0 victory over FC Tulsa in the Round of 16 at Children's Mercy Park.

With the score still deadlocked late in the first half, Hernandez whipped a dangerous free kick into the near post that was deflected into the back of the net by a Tulsa defender and the goal was officially credited to Hernandez. In the second half, Hernandez received a pass from Willy Agada, skipped by a defender and rifled a low shot into the corner to make the score 3-0.

It was Hernandez's first goals of the season and his first for Sporting since May 28, 2023, in a 4-1 MLS win over the Portland Timbers. Hernandez now has eight career goals for Sporting in all competitions, including four in the Open Cup - with all four coming as part of braces having also scored twice in Sporting's 6-0 win over Union Omaha in the 2022 Open Cup Quarterfinals at Children's Mercy Park.

AFRIFA BAGS GOAL & ASSIST vs. TULSA

Sporting Kansas City forward Stephen Afrifa took advantage of a rare starting opportunity on Tuesday night, scoring a goal and adding an assist in the club's 4-0 victory over FC Tulsa in the U.S. Open Cup Round of 16 at Children's Mercy Park.

Afrifa, who was Sporting's first round selection in the 2023 MLS SuperDraft out of Florida International University, was making his first start of the 2024 campaign and enjoyed a memorable night, first scoring his first goal for the club with an opportunistic finish inside the area late in the first half before setting up Marinos Tzionis in the second half for his first-ever professional assist.

Afrifa now has two goals at the professional level, having scored once for Sporting KC II in a 7-1 MLS NEXT Pro win over Vancouver Whitecaps 2 on July 2, 2023. The 23-year-old has made seven MLS appearances so far in 2024 but is yet to start a match in league play. Tuesday marked his third start for the club, having also been included in the starting XI in the club's 1-0 loss to Houston in last year's Open Cup on May 10, 2023 and in the 2-1 loss to Austin FC in MLS play on July 15, 2023.

MELIA PROVES PENALTY CHOPS ONCE AGAIN

Sporting Kansas City goalkeeper continued his remarkable record when facing penalty kicks, saving yet another spot kick from Austin FC star Sebastian Driussi in Sporting's 3-2 loss at Q2 Stadium last Saturday night.

After bringing down the Argentine midfielder in the 83rd minute, Melia picked himself up to dive to his right and repel Driussi's penalty kick and keep Sporting within reach of a result on the road.

Melia has now conceded just 22 of the 38 penalty kicks he's faced in MLS regular-season action - a goals conceded percentage of just 57.9 percent. That mark is the lowest in MLS regular season history among keepers with at least 20 penalty kicks faced.

The 38-year-old has saved 16 penalty kicks in the regular season since the start of 2015, the most in MLS during that time. Melia has also won all seven penalty shootouts he has participated in throughout his professional career, including a perfect 5-0 record with Sporting.

RODRIGUEZ TALLIES ANOTHER ASSIST, LEADS TEAM

Sporting Kansas City midfielder Memo Rodriguez recorded yet another assist last Saturday night, helping set up Johnny Russell's opener in the 18th minute of the 3-2 loss against Austin FC at Q2 Stadium.

Rodriguez clipped a ball over the top of the Austin defense, picking out Alan Pulido who fed Russell for the goal. Rodriguez, who was credited with a secondary assist on the goal, now has a team-leading four assists on the season, with two coming in the past two matches against his former teams Houston Dynamo FC and Austin FC.

The 28-year-old last tallied assists in back-to-back games on July 23 and Aug. 13, 2022 and has never in his career recorded assists in three consecutive MLS regular-season matches, which he'll have the chance to do this weekend when Sporting visits the Portland Timbers at Providence Park on Saturday night.

U.S. OLYMPIC TEAM TO PLAY FINAL PREP MATCH AT CMP

The U.S. Men's Olympic Soccer Team will face Asian champion Japan at 7 p.m. CT on Tuesday, June 11 at Children's Mercy Park in the team's final preparation match before the USA heads to France for the 2024 Olympics.

The U.S. Men's Olympic Team is returning to the Olympics this summer for the first time since 2008 and serves as an important part of U.S. Soccer's mission to develop winning teams. The Olympic Men's Soccer Tournament is restricted to players under the age of 23, with each team allowed three overage players on its roster.

In a marquee opening game of the tournament, the USA will kick off its Olympic return on July 24 against host France before taking on New Zealand on July 27 and Guinea on July 30.

Sporting KC Manager Peter Vermes

Thoughts on the match...

"From start to finish, we had good concentration. The intensity, the aggressiveness, the front footedness to go and take the game to them was there. I think that ruled the day. They had the one chance in the first half and then I think they had one chance in the second half if you will, maybe two. But at that point we were big time in control of the game, which was good. Our possession was much, much better. When I talk about that, I don't mean that from a percentage perspective. I'm talking about the way that we move the ball and the correct decisions and the circulation. It was good. In the first half, I think we probably should have scored three or four goals."

On gaining confidence from the win...

"They're two separate competitions that we're in. We need results in league play, for sure. What I like is that we had a very good effort in Austin in regards to our approach to the game and the way that we fought. All those things were very good. In this game, we had a lot of changes. Those guys adopted and adapted to that as well. They implemented all those ideas and we have got to continue to keep building off that. A win is a win is a win and, in the end, this is a very important tournament to us. We always have taken this very seriously. We're on a journey and now we're in the quarterfinals, which is an important step for us. We have got to keep rolling in the other areas as well and just keep getting better."

SPORTING KC AND CHILDREN'S MERCY KANSAS CITY CONTINUE TO IMPACT LOCAL COMMUNITY

A leading independent children's health organization dedicated to holistic care, translational research, educating caregivers and breakthrough innovation to create a world of well-being for all children, Children's Mercy Kansas City began a 10-year partnership with Sporting KC in 2016. Children's Mercy provides the highest level of care for children from birth through the age of 21. U.S. News & World Report has repeatedly ranked Children's Mercy as one of "America's Best Children's Hospitals."

The comprehensive partnership between Sporting KC and Children's Mercy Kansas City – which includes naming rights to Sporting KC's world-class stadium, Children's Mercy Park, as well as the Sporting KC II and Sporting KC Academy complex at Swope Soccer Village – is also at the forefront of Sporting's state-of-the-art training ground at Compass Minerals National Performance Center. In a first-of-its-kind collaboration between a professional sports team, a national sports federation and a sports medicine provider, the facility opened in 2018 and features the Children's Mercy Sports Medicine Center alongside Sporting Kansas City and U.S. Soccer.

Children's Mercy Kansas City is also the official health care and sports medicine provider for the Sporting Kansas City Academy and Compass Minerals National Performance Center as part of a multi-faceted partnership that focuses on the following three components to impact the local community:

1. Strengthening community

- The partnership directly supports The Victory Project, Sporting's foundation to help children - including those with cancer and disabilities – through all of life's challenges.
- Sporting KC players and staff engage with, encourage and inspire Children's Mercy patients throughout the year during hospital visits and special events.
- FLEET, an innovative team of remote experience robots operated via an iPad, regularly attends Sporting KC home matches to provide an all-access interactive experience for patients at Children's Mercy. Manufactured by Double Robotics, the robot allows users to enjoy two-way live audio and video captured from a 150-degree wide-angle lens while navigating to control their own VIP behind-the-scenes journey.
- Launched in 2018, the RED CARD campaign addresses one of the most significant social issues impacting children nationwide by empowering youth and adults to prevent and intervene in bullying. Through school assemblies and community-wide messaging, the RED CARD initiative aims to reach children, parents, teachers and coaches who have daily opportunities to create supportive environments and stop bullying in its tracks. In 2023 and 2024, Sporting and Children's Mercy teamed up to provide 90 students at 30 local elementary and middle schools with SKC jerseys on National Random Acts of Kindness Day as part of a Kindness In The Schools (K.I.T.S.) initiative.

2. Improving access to pediatric-trained sports medicine

- The Children's Mercy Sports Medicine Center at Village West is located inside Compass Minerals National Performance Center and offers a full range of sports medicine services, resources and programming for youth athletes. More than two million high-school athletes and 3.5 million children under age 14 are injured each year in the U.S. playing sports. Only a small percentage are treated by pediatric-trained sports medicine specialists who truly understand the youth's growing body, developing brain and unique psychosocial stressors.

3. Protecting youth athletes and educating parents and coaches

- The partnership provides athletic training, rehabilitation and conditioning programs for the Sporting KC Academy's six teams at Swope Soccer Village, which hosts Sporting KC II home matches as well as year-round athletic leagues, tournaments and other marquee events.

MANAGER & SPORTING DIRECTOR | PETER VERMES

Peter Vermes is in his 16th season as Sporting Kansas City Manager in 2024 and is the longest-tenured active head coach in MLS. He is the team's longest-serving manager and his 242 coaching victories in all competitions are the most club history. During his tenure, he has won four major trophies – the 2012, 2015 and 2017 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cups and the 2013 MLS Cup championship – and finished atop the Eastern Conference regular-season standings in 2011 and 2012, as well as the Western Conference in 2018 and 2020. His three U.S. Open Cup championships are the third most in Open Cup history. He is the first coach in club history to lead Sporting KC to eight straight post-season appearances, as well as the only person to ever win the MLS Cup as both a player and a coach with the same team. His 197 regular-season wins top the club's all-time chart and rank third most in MLS history. He passed his former coach Bob Gansler as the winningest manager in team history with a 3-1 win over Real Salt Lake on Aug. 12, 2015, his 109th victory in all competitions.

On August 4, 2018, Vermes coached his 302nd MLS regular-season game with Sporting KC, becoming the league's all-time leader in games coached for one club. He was named the first-ever MLS Sporting Executive of the Year by his peers in 2018. Vermes has coached 574 total games during his Kansas City coaching career, most in club history.

With over 15 years of service at Sporting KC, Vermes is one of the longest serving managers in world soccer. Among all leagues with an average attendance of 10,000+, Vermes ranks second, only behind Bundesliga side FC Heidenheim's Frank Schmidt (Sept. 17, 2007 – present). Among the top 126 leagues in the world as denoted by the CIES Football Observatory in March 2022, Vermes' tenure at ranks as the fifth longest active run.

Vermes oversees all soccer operations for Sporting KC, including the active roster, Sporting Kansas City II (MLS NEXT Pro) and the Sporting KC Academy. Vermes entered MLS ahead of its inaugural season in 1996 and retired from the league in 2002, closing out his playing career in Kansas City after stints with the New York/New Jersey MetroStars and Colorado Rapids.

Following a standout high school career in which he was named New Jersey Player of the Year, Vermes was a star forward and All-American at Rutgers University. After college, Vermes represented the United States in the 1988 Olympics in Seoul, Korea, and was named 1988 Chevrolet U.S. Male Soccer Athlete of the Year for his efforts.

Vermes was an integral part of a young U.S. team at the 1990 World Cup in Italy, where he nearly scored against the host Azzurri. It was the first time the U.S. had qualified for the World Cup in 40 years and set the stage for the progress of the U.S. National Team. In 1989 and 1990, Vermes became the first American to play in the Hungarian and Dutch First Divisions, playing for Raba ETO and FC Volendam, respectively. He later spent five years with Figueres of the Spanish Second Division.

For MLS's inaugural season in 1996, Vermes served as captain of the New York/New Jersey MetroStars. In 1997, he was traded to the Colorado Rapids for current Sporting KC Assistant Coach Kerry Zavagnin and played in Denver through the 1999 season, leading the Rapids to the 1997 MLS Cup Final.

Vermes joined Kansas City in 2000 for what would be the most successful season of his MLS career. During his first year in Kansas City, he anchored one of the best defenses in league history and won MLS Defender of the Year honors in helping lead the Wizards to the 2000 MLS Cup Championship. He retired in 2002 after appearing in 209 MLS matches (including playoffs) and playing more than 18,000 minutes. In 2013, Vermes was inducted into the National Soccer Hall of Fame.

ASSISTANT COACH | KERRY ZAVAGNIN

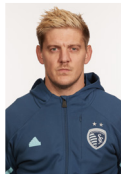

Kerry Zavagnin currently holds the MLS record as he enters his 25th season with one club as a player or coach. Zavagnin first joined Kansas City in 2000 as a holding midfielder and was an integral part of the club's midfield for the next nine seasons, during which time he helped lead the Wizards to MLS Cup (2000) and U.S. Open Cup (2004) Championships. He was named to the MLS All-Star team and the Best XI in 2004. Zavagnin's primary duties as an assistant include scouting, developing Sporting Kansas City's younger players, breaking down film and assisting with training sessions. He started his professional career with the MetroStars, where he played in 39 games over two seasons. After spending one season with the Lehigh Valley Steam (USL-1), Zavagnin came to KC in 2000. He played 237 games and logged 20,516 minutes for Kansas City, setting team records in both categories before being overtaken by Matt Besler early in 2018. He scored eight goals and added 22 assists in his nine seasons in KC. Zavagnin was named Team Defender of the Year in 2001. On top of his club success in Kansas City, Zavagnin also appeared 21 times for the U.S. Men's National Team. He recorded one assist for the U.S., who went 15-2-4 when Zavagnin featured.

ASSISTANT COACH | ZORAN SAVIC

Zoran Savic joined Sporting Kansas City late in the 2009 season after a 30-year career at all levels of the game in the United States. A native of Gornji Milanovac, Yugoslavia, Savic began his journey through American soccer with the Buffalo Stallions of the Major Indoor Soccer League in 1980. Savic would go on to star for several MISL teams, with his most prosperous period coming with the Kansas City Comets, with whom he scored 70 goals in just over 100 appearances from 1982-1984. After retiring as a player in 1991, Savic turned his attention to coaching in the indoor game. Savic led the Kansas City Attack from 1992-1996, winning Coach of the Year honors for the 1994-1995 season while also serving as the team's General Manager. Savic later coached the Kansas City Comets from 2000-2005. In 2007 Savic switched to the outdoor game, joining Chivas USA as an assistant to then-head coach Preki before moving into the commentary booth for Kansas City matches in 2008 and 2009. Savic's career as a commentator was cut short, however, when newly installed Manager Peter Vermes tabbed Savic to be part of his coaching staff late in the 2009 season.

ASSISTANT COACH | ASH WALLACE

Ash Wallace has served on Sporting Kansas City's technical staff since 2012, aiding the first team coaching staff in a variety of roles. Wallace, originally from England, helps scout and develop game plans for upcoming opponents, assists in planning and executing training sessions and provides valuable analysis for coaches and players regarding strategy. Wallace holds a U.S. Soccer A License. Wallace's first involvement with the club came in August 2012 when he was contracted to produce a detailed scouting report on Seattle Sounders FC ahead of the U.S. Open Cup Final, helping Sporting claim their first of four major titles during a trophy-laden decade. Prior to joining Sporting KC, Wallace was a member of the Preston North End coaching staff and also served as an opposition scout for Fleetwood Town in his native England.
