MATCH PREVIEW

- St. Louis CITY SC earned their 10th win of the season after defeating Vancouver Whitecaps 3-1 at BC Place on Saturday.
- The result marked the first time in CITY SC history that the team picked up a win against the Whitecaps at BC Place. Vancouver opened the scoring through Emmanuel Sabbi in the third minute before St. Louis responded with three goals in 22 minutes to seal the victory and extend their unbeaten streak to 14 matches across all competitions.
- Simon Becher leveled the scoring for CITY SC in the 23rd minute, notching his first goal against his former team.
- Later in the first half, CITY SC's two Norwegian wingbacks Tomas Totland and Conrad Wallem got in on the action with a goal each.
- Carlo Hulse, Alex Matan (2), Wallem, Totland and Edelman earned assists in the match.
- CITY SC's newly acquired forwards Rafael Navarro and Damion Downs also made their debut in the win.
- With the performance, CITY SC was heavily represented in the league's Team of the Matchday roster, with Conrad Wallem and Tomas Totland earning a spot on the squad after notching a goal and an assist each against Vancouver.
- Head coach Yoann Damet was also selected as the coach of the matchday, marking his second appearance on the squad this season.
- The win was Damet's 10th of the regular season and marked the first time since the 2023 MLS season that the club has won 10 matches.
- CITY SC enters the matchup riding a 13-match unbeaten streak in MLS after earning a 3-1 comeback victory at Vancouver on Saturday, while Portland is coming off a 5-4 win over Minnesota United at Providence Park.
- The Timbers have won one of the last four meetings between the two sides, including a 2-1 victory in Portland in June 2025, while CITY earned a 2-1 win at Energizer Park later that season.
- The teams have met three times previously at Providence Park, with CITY earning a 2-1 victory in 2023, the sides playing to a 4-4 draw in 2024 and Portland earning a 2-1 win in 2025.
- Overall, the teams have met seven times across all competitions, with CITY holding a 3-2-2 record, including a 3-1 win over Portland in the 2024 Leagues Cup.
- Portland Timbers holds a 9-10-4 record with 31 points and enters Wednesday's match coming off a 5-4 win over Minnesota United at Providence Park last Saturday.
- The Timbers have won two of their last five matches, with a 3-1 win over San Diego and a 5-4 win over Minnesota during that stretch.
- At Providence Park this season, Portland is 7-3-2, earning 23 of its 31 points at home.
- The Timbers have scored 44 goals in MLS play this season while conceding 43.
- Kristoffer Velde leads Portland with six goals and nine assists.

CLUB-RECORD UNBEATEN STREAK

- CITY SC's 14-match unbeaten streak across all competition is the longest in club history.
- The run began with a 1-0 road victory over the Colorado Rapids and has seen St. Louis climb from 14th place in the Western Conference to fifth.
- In league play, the team has gone 13 consecutive matches with a loss, boasting a 9-0-4 record.
- St. Louis' 13-match unbeaten streak in the regular season is tied for the second-best mark of any team across the last 10 MLS seasons.
- During its current run, St. Louis has scored 27 goals, kept three clean sheets and conceded just 13 goals.

BOLSTERING THE SQUAD

- St. Louis CITY SC has acquired 26-year-old Brazilian striker Rafael Navarro from the Colorado Rapids via a Cash for Player Trade for a club-record $12 million fee, plus an additional $250,000 in conditional compensation.
- Navarro joins CITY SC as a Designated Player and has agreed to four-year contract through the 2029-30 season, with an option for the 2030-31 season.
- Navarro, 26, joins CITY SC after establishing himself as one of Major League Soccer's most productive strikers since arriving in the league in 2023. The Brazilian striker has scored 38 goals and recorded 15 assists in 97 regular-season MLS appearances, recording double-digit goals in each of the last three seasons. So far in 2026, Navarro has scored 10 regular-season goals and added four assists in 22 appearances.
- Additionally, St. Louis CITY SC has acquired 22-year-old U.S. Men's National Team forward Damion Downs on loan from English second division side Southampton FC through the 2027 Sprint season.

TEAM OF THE MATCHDAY

- With the performance, CITY SC was heavily represented in the league's Team of the Matchday roster, with Conrad Wallem and Tomas Totland earning a spot on the squad after notching a goal and an assist each against Vancouver.

- Head coach Yoann Damet was also selected as the coach of the matchday, marking his second appearance on the squad this season.
- The win was Damet's 10th of the regular season and marked the first time since the 2023 MLS season that the club has won 10 matches. .

ST. LOUIS CITY SC vs. PORTLAND

- Wednesday's match will be the first meeting of the season between the two sides.
- CITY SC enters the matchup riding a 13-match unbeaten streak in MLS after earning a 3-1 comeback victory at Vancouver on Saturday, while Portland is coming off a 5-4 win over Minnesota United at Providence Park.
- The Timbers have won one of the last four meetings between the two sides, including a 2-1 victory in Portland in June 2025, while CITY earned a 2-1 win at Energizer Park later that season.
- The teams have met three times previously at Providence Park, with CITY earning a 2-1 victory in 2023, the sides playing to a 4-4 draw in 2024 and Portland earning a 2-1 win in 2025.
- Overall, the teams have met seven times across all competitions, with CITY holding a 3-2-2 record, including a 3-1 win over Portland in the 2024 Leagues Cup.

ENERGIZER PARK

- In 2024, CITY SC's home stadium was rebranded Energizer Park in a landmark naming-rights deal with the St. Louis-born global brand Energizer.
- Since opening, the stadium has quickly developed a reputation as one of the most energetic venues for visiting MLS teams.
- The 22,500-seat stadium also gained international acclaim in 2024, earning recognition from the Prix Versailles as one of the world's most beautiful sports venues.
- Energizer Park was most recently named one of six stadiums to host LA2028 Olympic soccer matches.
- Since its inaugural season in 2023, CITY SC is 28-18-16 at home in MLS regular season play, scoring 108 goals over the past four seasons.

- Former CITY SC players Klauss leads the team with 16 goals scored at Energizer Park while, Eduard Löwen leads the group with 18 assists at home.
- Goalkeepers Roman Bürki and Ben Lundt have combined for 17 shutouts at Energizer Park since 2023.

CAREER MILESTONES

- A few players on the 2026 roster have made many firsts in their careers and hit multiple marquee milestones so far this season.
- In CITY SC's 2026 home opener vs. Charlotte FC on February 21, Bürki made his 100th career appearance for the club and followed that up by making his 100th career appearance and start in the MLS on May 3 at Austin FC.
- On March 14 against LAFC, midfielder Daniel Edelman made his 100th MLS appearance.
- German defender Timo Baumgartl scored his first career MLS goal against FC Dallas on April 11.
- Eduard Löwen became the first player in club history to record 30 regular-season goal contributions (13 goals, 17 assists) at Energizer Park during the team's match against LAFC on May 13.
- Fallou Fall scored his first career MLS goal and first with CITY SC against Austin FC at home in late May 23. During the same match, Daniel Edelman notched his first goal with the club and third overall in his MLS career.
- Edelman also recorded his 100th MLS start against LA Galaxy on July 22.
- With his goal against Sporting KC on July 16, Sang-Bin became the first player from the Korea Republic to score 10 MLS regular-season goals.

CLUB MILESTONES

- This season, St. Louis earned key points and wins over many teams for the first time in club history.
- St. Louis picked up their first point at Toyota Stadium in club history after the team's 1-1 draw against FC Dallas on April 11.
- During the club's Round of 16 U.S. Open Cup win at Chicago Fire, St. Louis advanced to the U.S. Open Cup Quarterfinals for the first time in club history. The win was also the first time in club history CITY SC defeated the Fire on the road.
- CITY picked up their first ever road win in club history against the Colorado Rapids on May 9, earning a 1-0 shutout win. Then, just three days later, St. Louis upset LAFC 2-1 at home, marking the first win in club history against the Black and Gold.
- Nearly a week after making history, CITY SC did so again in the U.S. Open Cup Quarterfinal. After tying Houston Dynamo 2-2 in regulation, St. Louis secured a 4-2 victory in the penalty shootout, advancing to the U.S. Open Cup Semifinal for the first time in club history.

YOANN DAMET

HEAD COACH

St. Louis CITY SC appointed Yoann Damet as its third head coach in club history ahead of 2026 MLS season. Widely regarded as one of the brightest young coaching minds in North American soccer, Damet arrives in St. Louis after spending the last three seasons as an assistant coach under Wilfried Nancy with the Columbus Crew, helping guide the club to an MLS Cup 2023 title and a Leagues Cup 2024 championship.

At just 36 years old, the Frenchman brings nearly two decades of coaching experience across France, Canada, and the United States. Throughout his career, he has worked alongside highly respected coaches including Greg Vanney, Wilfried Nancy, and Mikey Varas. Prior to joining Columbus, Damet served on Vanney's staff with the LA Galaxy after previously leading LA Galaxy II as head coach in the USL Championship.

He also spent several years with FC Cincinnati, where he twice served as interim head coach, becoming the youngest coach in MLS history to debut and win a league match at age 29.

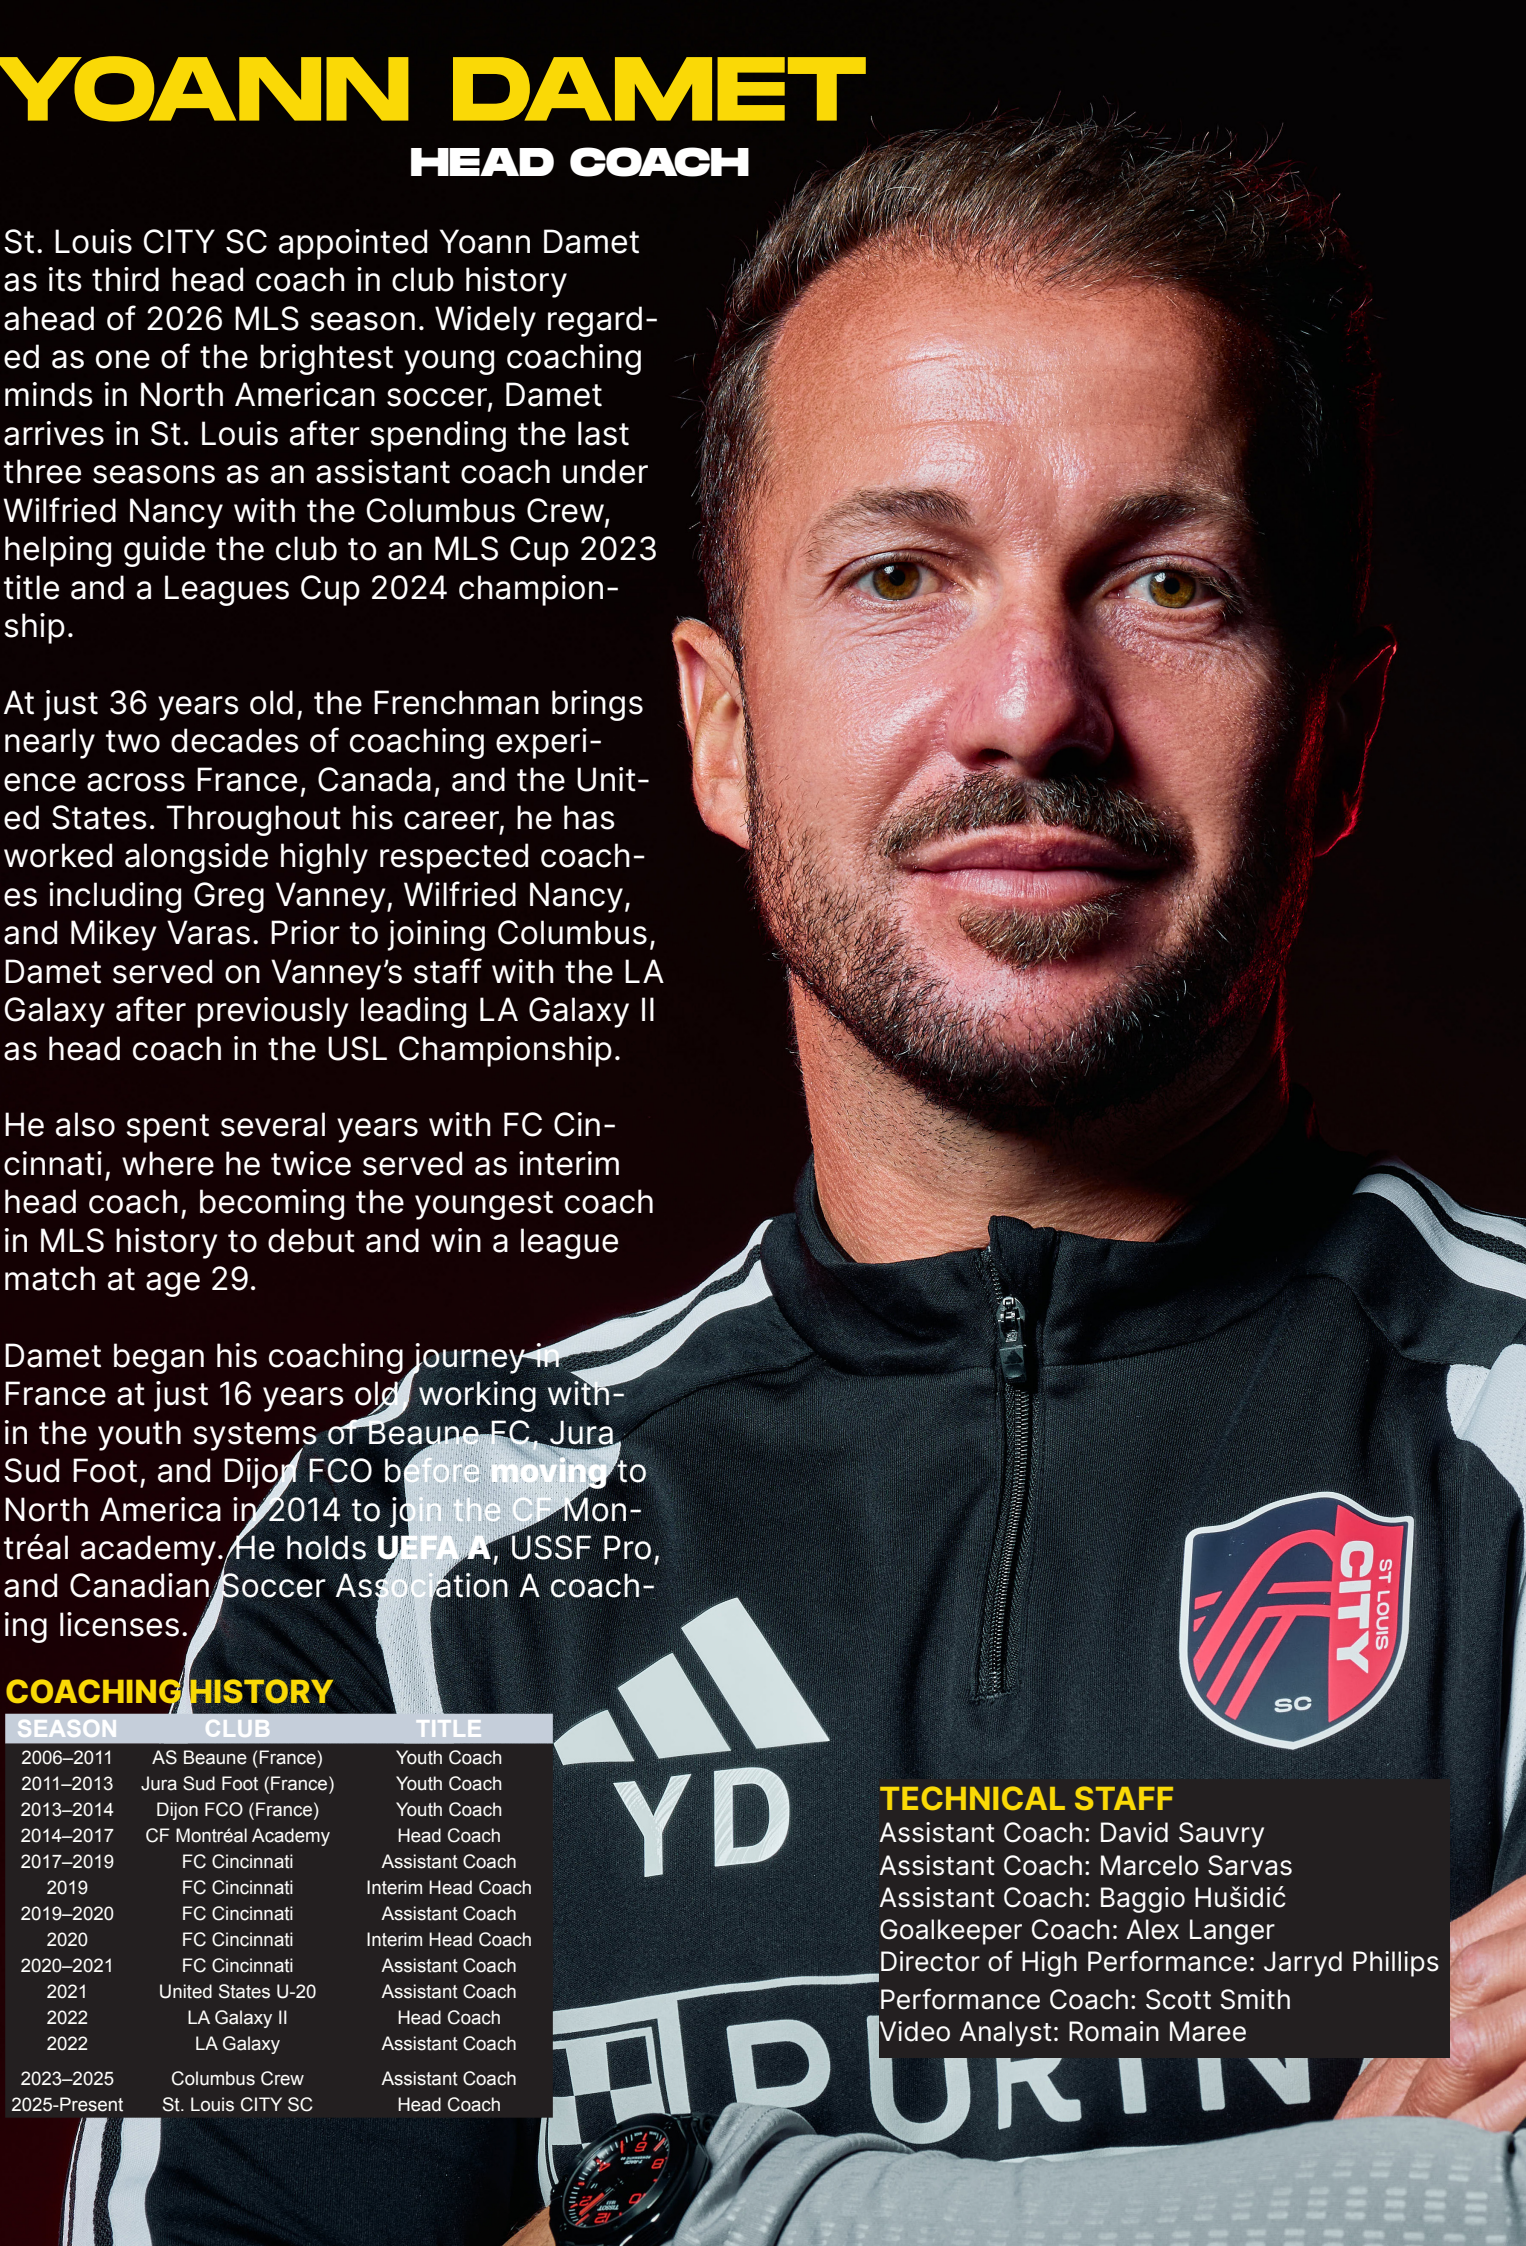

Damet began his coaching journey in France at just 16 years old, working within the youth systems of Beaune FC, Jura Sud Foot, and Dijon FCO before moving to North America in 2014 to join the CF Montréal academy. He holds UEFA A, USSF Pro, and Canadian Soccer Association A coaching licenses.
