#SKCvPOR: HEAD-TO-HEAD

Sporting Kansas City (6-18-3, 21 pts.) returns home this weekend to host the Portland Timbers (9-13-5, 32 pts.) at Sporting Park on Saturday night.

Sporting already visited Portland earlier this season, falling to a 6-0 defeat at Providence Park on May 9, 2026. The hosts came flying out of the gates and scored four goals in the opening 26 minutes before adding another pair of goals in the second half to secure the points.

Sporting last hosted the Timbers at Sporting Park well over a year ago, falling to a 4-2 defeat at Sporting Park on April 13, 2025. Sporting twice fought back from first-half deficits with goals from Shapi Suleymanov and Dejan Joveljic to go into the break at 2-2, but a pair of quickfire goals early in the second half for the Timbers doomed the hosts to a 4-2 defeat.

Sporting is 9-11-7 all-time against the Timbers in the regular season, and have gone 2-8-3 in their last 13 against the Timbers. Sporting is 5-2-5 all-time at home in the series, but last tasted victory back in 2023.

SPORTING KANSAS CITY NEWS AND NOTES

BUSY SCHEDULE COMMENCES

Sporting Kansas City is in the midst of a remarkably busy month of October and is set to kick off the most grueling portion of the month this weekend when the team hosts the Portland Timbers at Sporting Park on Saturday night. Including Saturday's match, Sporting will play another six matches in the final 21 days of the month - including four at home.

Date	Opponent	Venue
Oct. 10	Portland Timbers	Sporting Park
Oct. 14	at Nashville SC	GEODIS Park
Oct. 17	Real Salt Lake	Sporting Park
Oct. 24	Austin FC	Sporting Park
Oct. 28	at Minnesota United	Allianz Field
Oct. 31	FC Dallas	Sporting Park

This month is also only the second time in club history that Sporting will play regular season games on the first day (Oct. 1 at Seattle) and final day (Oct. 31 vs. Dallas) of the same month. The only other such occasion also featured a road match against the Sounders at Lumen Field back on Sept. 1, 2018 before SKC finished the month playing at Sporting Park on Sept. 30, 2018.

TOPPLING THE TIMBERS

Sporting Kansas City returns home this weekend to host the Portland Timbers at Sporting Park on Saturday night. Sporting last played on Oct. 1 in a rescheduled match at Seattle, while the Timbers have been idle since falling 3-1 at San Jose on Sept. 26.

The two sides last met earlier this season at Providence Park, with Portland romping to a 6-0 victory. The hosts raced into a four-goal lead within the opening 26 minutes before adding another pair of goals in the second half to send Sporting back to Kansas City licking their wounds.

Sporting last hosted the Timbers well over a year ago on April 13, 2025. With interim head coach Kerry Zavagnin taking charge of just his second match, Sporting fell 4-2 to Portland at Sporting Park despite first-half goals from Shapi Suleymanov and Dejan Joveljic.

Sporting trails the all-time regular-season series with the Timbers 9-11-7 and holds a 5-2-5 mark at Sporting Park, but Sporting is winless in their last five in the series (0-4-1).

ANDRE CONTINUES SCORCHING FORM

Sporting Kansas City Designated Player and record-signing Andre Luiz continued his scorching hot form last week, finding the back of the net once again in the team's 2-1 setback against the Seattle Sounders at Lumen Field on Thursday night.

The Brazilian winger received the ball inside the penalty area after Stephen Afrija had charged down a Seattle clearance, took a touch and thundered the ball into the top corner to give his side the lead. Andre now has five goals in his past four games, all coming in the first half of matches, making him the team's top scorer on the active roster.

Since September 10, Andre is the only player in MLS with five goals and the only player in MLS with six goal contributions (five goals, one assist). He is the fourth player in club history to score five goals in his first five regular season starts and the fourth player in club history to record six goal contributions in his first six regular season appearances.

Andre has the longest active scoring streak in MLS with goals in four straight games, while only two players in club history have scored in more consecutive regular season appearances: Preki (goals in five straight games in 1996) and Johnny Russell (goals in eight straight games in 2021).

AFRIFA BAGS ANOTHER ASSIST

Sporting Kansas City forward Stephen Afrija continued to make the most of his recent opportunities, earning another assist in last week's 2-1 loss to the Seattle Sounders at Lumen Field.

Afrija's pressed high to charge down an attempted pass out of the Seattle backline, redirecting the ball into the path of Andre Luiz who in turn rifled the ball into the top corner to give the visitors a halftime lead.

The assist was Afrija's third of the season and sixth of his Sporting career across all competitions, while he now has a goal contribution in four consecutive away matches dating back to Aug. 23 at Atlanta (two goals, two assists).

Afrija's six goal contributions (three goals, three assists) in 2026 are a new single-season career high, surpassing his five goal contributions (four goals, one assist) in 2024. Since joining the club in 2023 as the eighth overall pick in the MLS SuperDraft out of FIU, Afrija has tallied nine goals and six assists in just over 2,000 minutes.

RAMOS SCORES HAT TRICK FOR U.S. U-20s

Sporting Kansas City forward Ruben Ramos Jr. scored a hat trick for the United States Under-20 Men's National Team this past weekend to cap a nine-day international training camp in San Pedro Del Pinatar, Spain.

Led by head coach Gonzalo Segares, the U.S. U-20s continued to prepare for the 2027 FIFA U-20 World Cup in Azerbaijan and Uzbekistan with a pair of friendly matches against Brazil (2-0 loss) and Denmark (3-3 draw) at the Pinatar Arena. Ramos scored all three goals for the U.S. U-20s in the 3-3 draw with Denmark, helping the team overcome 2-0 and 3-1 deficits.

Ramos joined Sporting on Sept. 3 via loan from the LA Galaxy with 17 goals and seven assists in his professional career. The 19-year-old forward has previously represented the United States at the U-15, U-16, U-17, U-19 and U-20 levels, including appearances at two Concacaf U-20 Championships in 2024 and 2026.

SCHEWE VICTORIOUS IN USL CUP FINAL

Sporting Kansas City goalkeeper Ryan Schewe joined USL Championship side Louisville City FC on loan on Sept. 4 and participated in the first cup final of his professional career when he posted a shutout to help Louisville defeat Hartford Athletic 1-0 in the USL Cup Final on Oct. 4 at Trinity Health Stadium in Hartford, Connecticut.

Schewe, 24, has played in each of Louisville's six matches since joining the team on loan. His first start came in the USL Cup semifinals on Sept. 8 as he kept a clean sheet and recorded three saves in the penalty shootout following a scoreless draw in regulation to book Louisville's berth in the final.

Sporting Kansas City selected Schewe with the 22nd overall pick in the first round of the 2024 MLS SuperDraft following a standout collegiate career at Georgetown. Schewe has made 17 total appearances for Sporting Kansas City II over the past three seasons in both MLS NEXT Pro and the U.S. Open Cup.

WICKY QUOTES: #SEAvSKC

Sporting Kansas City head coach Raphael Wicky

Thoughts on the match...

We were very unlucky to lose here in the 90th minute. Overall, I believe the team had another really good performance away from home, against a team who we all know has a lot of experience. On turf here in this stadium, it's never easy. I believe that the team had a very good performance. We created a lot of attacking actions, played well, and defended together. It was very unlucky that we leave here away with zero points. That hurts of course, but I think our last four or five performances are going in the right direction. That's where we have to take the positives from.

On Sporting's press throughout the game...

What we want to do is, whenever possible, we want to apply pressure, we want to put them under pressure together. It's not just one guy normally, it's a collective effort. There were many moments where we did that well. There are moments where Seattle and their players play out as well. But that was one of those moments, and that is important. Counter press is important. Now, in the 90th, our counter press was too short to win the ball with (Jacob) Bartlett, and Kwaku (Agyabeng). That's the little things with counter-press. We want to be a team who, when we lose the ball, recover the ball quickly again. We have really good moments of that. In the last action, unfortunately, they get out of there, and then they have the counter.

On the injury troubles the team is facing...

It's a little bit a reflection of the whole year. It started like that in preseason, went through the first bit until the World Cup, and unfortunately, it has, continued now. My job is to try to look for solutions, and to work with the players who are available. It's unfortunate that we have so many important players injured. But we're all working together and we need to look for solutions. It's the same for the next weekend. Lasse (Berg Johnsen) came out of the game with a hamstring, so we will see how that develops. The mentality has to be, next man up. I think, and Jansen (Miller) and Wyatt (Meyer) have shown that. Orr (Blorian) and Moises (Mosquera) are not there, and I think they have done their job well. There will be another guy stepping in again for Lasse if that's something bad. Hopefully a few guys can recover in the next weeks as well.

Sporting Kansas City acquired forward Andre Luiz in a club-record transfer from Greek club Olympiacos FC in August 2026. Luiz, the fifth player that Sporting has signed as a Designated Player since the start of 2018, arrives in Kansas City following a breakout season in Europe where he took Portugal by storm with Rio Ave FC, tallying seven goals and six assists in the first half of the season, before closing out the 2025-2026 campaign at Greek giants Olympiacos.

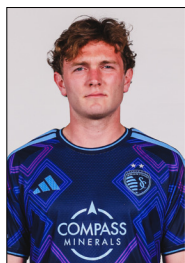

After developing at America Football Club in his native Rio de Janeiro, Luiz moved to the academy of CF Flamengo to continue his development in 2020. He starred at the U-20 level and made his professional debut for the Flamengo first team on Dec. 9, 2021. Luiz made nine total appearances for Flamengo and scored his first senior goal against Resende FC on Feb. 18, 2023 before heading to Portugal for a loan stint with Estrela da Amadora during the 2023-2024 season. Luiz impressed by scoring four goals in his maiden season in the Portuguese top-flight, prompting Estrela da Amadora to make the move permanent.

Following a strong start to the new season, Luiz was acquired by fellow Liga Portugal team Rio Ave FC in January of 2025 and broke out as one of Portugal's most coveted players during the first half of the 2025-2026 season when he recorded seven goals and six assists for Rio Ave in just 19 appearances - including a stunning late equalizer to secure a point on the road against Jose Mourinho's Benfica. His form in Portugal earned him a move to Greek giants Olympiacos FC in January 2026, where he made an instant impact on his debut by winning a dramatic 106th-minute penalty kick as Olympiacos earned a 1-1 draw against AEK Athens in the local derby on Feb. 1, 2026.

Sporting Kansas City acquired winger Shapi Suleymanov in a transfer from Greek side Aris Thessaloniki ahead of the 2025 season. In eight prior years as a professional, Suleymanov recorded 55 goals and 46 assists while making over 300 appearances in Russia, Turkey, Israel and Greece. Suleymanov enjoyed a breakout season in 2018-19, finishing with 11 goals in all competitions. The following season saw Suleymanov strike twice in a 3-2 road win at FC Porto in the Champions League, highlighting another strong campaign in which the
