GALAXY ATTACK FINDING ITS FORM

João Klauss has hit the ground running in the four matches since his return from injury mid-September, highlighted by goals in three consecutive matches and counting. Since his return, Klauss has ranked second in all of MLS in expected goals (xG) per 90 minutes with 1.29. He also ranks second only to Inter Miami's Lionel Messi in shots per 90 (6.2) and is third in MLS in shots on target (2.9 per 90) in that span. But the Brazilian forward is not the only Galaxy attacker finding his form. Marco Reus is coming off of a brilliant September where he registered three goals and two assists and earned three MLS Team of the Matchday honors, as well as an EA SPORTS FC27 Team of the Week honor. In the club's first match of October, Reus added yet another assist in limited minutes. Midseason addition Robert Taylor has been impactful as well as of late, adding a goal contribution of his own in each of the club's previous three matches (one goal, two assists).

ROBERTO, RUIZ SOLIDIFYING THE MIDFIELD

The LA Galaxy added both Sergi Roberto and Pablo Ruiz at the close of the summer transfer window in hopes of bolstering the midfield ahead of the campaign's final stretch, and the duo has not disappointed. Since their respective debuts, Roberto and Ruiz have set the standard for both the club's passing volume and work rate. Over the past seven matchdays, Roberto leads the entire league in passing accuracy (95.9%). In addition, Roberto leads the Galaxy in successful passes per 90 minutes (62.6) and total distance covered per 90 (12.49km), while Ruiz leads the team in distance covered out of possession (5.44km per 90). Ruiz is second on the team to Roberto in passing accuracy (92.3%) during that span. Notably, both players are averaging more successful passes and distance covered per 90 minutes than any Galaxy player averaged over the opening 22 league matches this season.

VCFC HOSTS MNUFC2 IN MLS NEXT PRO PLAYOFFS:

Ventura County FC (VCFC) will host Minnesota United FC 2 at Dignity Health Sports Park this Friday, October 16 at 7 p.m. PT in the opening round of the MLS NEXT Pro Playoffs. VCFC finished third in the Western Conference under Head Coach Matt Taylor and selected Minnesota as its first-round opponent through MLS NEXT Pro's "Pick Your Opponent" format. Ventura County finished the regular season with the most goals scored in the Western Conference, the fourth-fewest goals conceded and the second-best goal differential in the conference.

SEPTEMBER SUCCESS FOR THE GALAXY

The LA Galaxy put together a successful month of September, putting the club in prime position to control its own playoff destiny down the stretch. The past month also marked the first time in the campaign that the Galaxy have won back-to-back matches. Overall, the Galaxy's 10 points in the month of September marks both their highest total in a single month this season so far (3-1-1 record), and their highest point total in a single month since June 2024 (12 points).

MATCH RECAP

The LA Galaxy (9-11-9, 36 points) fell 6-2 to Western Conference side St. Louis CITY SC (14-6-8, 50 points) at Energizer Park in Missouri. Robert Taylor cut into an early three-goal deficit for the Galaxy at the half-hour mark, but it was not enough for a result away from home. João Klauss entered the match in the 11th minute to a standing ovation as he made his official return St. Louis for the first time since joining the Galaxy this past offseason and scored his eighth goal of the campaign in the second half.

Robert Taylor's goal in the 31st minute tonight marked his third consecutive match with a goal contribution for the Galaxy, tallying an assist in each of LA's previous two matches against Minnesota and Colorado.

LA Galaxy midfielder Troy Elgersma earned his first career MLS Regular Season start and added his first career assist tonight against the same opponent in which he scored the first goal of his MLS career back on July 22.

LA Galaxy forward and Designated Player Joseph Paintsil made his official return to the pitch tonight as a second-half substitute after missing the previous four league matches due to a thigh injury.

Forward Kyōgo Furuhashi exited the match in the 11th minute with an injury.

NOTABLE QUOTES

LA Galaxy Head Coach Greg Vanney

On turning the page ahead of Wednesday:

"I feel like [this game] lights a fire under some people and under the group. That was the emotion that I went into in the locker room. There was certainly anger and disappointment, but I also felt a recognition that there's a big week still ahead of us. Those games are going to be at home, and they are what our focus is on. I feel like there will be a good bounce back. It's important that everybody bounces back, I just have to keep an eye on maybe a couple of guys, but in general I think the group is going to be resilient and excited to be back at home in front of the crowd and recognizes that we actually didn't really lose any ground tonight in the grand scheme of things because of other results. We didn't make up ground to the teams in front of us, and we didn't separate ourselves from the teams behind us. Yesterday there were just so many draws, Seattle was the one team that was able to pick up a win, but tonight we looked at it like this was an opportunity to create separation and to stay on track with the team ahead of us so let's take advantage of this opportunity, but we didn't. In not doing so, we didn't lose a lot of ground on what's behind us, but we know the importance of what's in front of us now games wise."

LA Galaxy Forward João Klauss

On recapturing the team's momentum ahead of Wednesday:

"I think we have a lot of players with a lot of experience in this team. This game is already behind us, we can't change what happened today. It's a very important week for us. We don't have time to feel sorry for ourselves, we have to take responsibility and accountability for what happened today, and then tomorrow we move forward. Wednesday we have a very important game at home in front of our fans and we have to get the three points, and then Saturday again. Soccer sometimes, it's tough. I understand everybody is frustrated right now, everybody is mad. But on Wednesday, we have another chance to do things different. We have to show a different mentality. We have to show why we are here in Galaxy, the biggest club in MLS, and why we deserve to be here. Otherwise, it doesn't make sense to be here. The Galaxy should fight to win the league every single season. We have to give a good response on Wednesday and get the three points."

On his reception from St. Louis fans:

"Very nice. It was three years that I was here. I had a great relationship with their fans, similar to the relationship I have with Galaxy fans. I always respect them a lot. I always gave my 100 percent on the field and when people see that you give your best, whether in good moments or bad moments, they are going to respect you. It was beautiful to be back here. I really appreciate all of the love that they gave me today. Even when I stepped in to warmups and then when I came into the game in five minutes, the whole stadium was cheering for me. After the goal as well, they were celebrating the goal. So I really appreciate them, a lot of love for them. Good luck to them, they are doing amazing, they are playing a great season, and I wish them all the best."

ABOUT GREG VANNEY

The LA Galaxy announced in March 2025 that the club signed Head Coach Greg Vanney to a multi-year contract extension. Vanney, 51 began his professional career as a player with the LA Galaxy and returned as Head Coach in January 2021 after a six-year stint as Toronto FC's Manager in which he became the only coach to capture an MLS Treble by winning MLS Cup, the MLS Supporters' Shield and the Canadian Championship during the 2017 season

Vanney stepped down as Toronto FC manager following the 2020 MLS Season as both the most successful and longest-tenured coach in Toronto FC's history with every major club record, including total wins (112) and games coached (250). In all, Vanney recorded an 87-68-48 MLS Regular Season record and a 10-5-2 MLS postseason record while being named MLS Coach of the Year and Concacaf Coach of the Year in 2017. As Toronto FC's coach, the former Galaxy defender helped lead his side to the MLS Cup Playoffs in five of the previous six seasons (2015, 2016, 2017, 2019, 2020), while making appearances in three MLS Cup Finals (2016, 2017, 2019) and the Concacaf Champions League Final (2018). He also helped his side capture three-straight Canadian Championships (2016, 2017, 2018).

As a player, Vanney made 270 total MLS Regular Season appearances, including 193 as a member of the LA Galaxy, tied with Todd Dunivant for the sixth-most appearances of any player in LA Galaxy history and trailing only Cobi Jones (306), Landon Donovan (253), Kevin Hartman (243), Mauricio Cienfuegos (206) and A.J. DeLaGarza (204). With LA, Vanney helped lead the club to a Supporters' Shield (1998), CONCACAF Champions' Cup (2000) and U.S. Open Cup (2001) while being named to the MLS Best XI twice (2000, 2001) and earning honors as LA Galaxy Defender of the Year (2001). He also made an additional 32 MLS Cup Playoff appearances, including 26 postseason appearances with the Galaxy.

Vanney began his professional playing career after being drafted by the Galaxy from UCLA with the 17th overall selection in the 1996 MLS College Draft. During his time as a professional, Vanney represented the Galaxy, FC Dallas, Colorado Rapids and D.C. United in Major League Soccer while also playing a stint for Bastia in France. He also earned 11 caps with the U.S. Men's National Team, making his debut in 1996 before later featuring in the 2005 Concacaf Gold Cup Championship and 2006 FIFA World Cup Qualifiers.

Following his retirement after the 2008 MLS season, Vanney served as the Real Salt Lake Youth Academy Director from 2008-2011 before joining Chivas USA as an assistant coach from 2011-2012. Vanney originally joined Toronto FC as the club's assistant general manager and academy director in 2013 before being named head coach and technical director on August 31, 2014.
