HEAD COACH GREG VANNEY

The LA Galaxy announced in March 2025 that the club signed Head Coach Greg Vanney to a multi-year contract extension. Vanney, 51 began his professional career as a player with the LA Galaxy and returned as Head Coach in January 2021 after a six-year stint as Toronto FC's Manager in which he became the only coach to capture an MLS Treble by winning MLS Cup, the MLS Supporters' Shield and the Canadian Championship during the 2017 season.

Vanney stepped down as Toronto FC manager following the 2020 MLS Season as both the most successful and longest-tenured coach in Toronto FC's history with every major club record, including total wins (112) and games coached (250). In all, Vanney recorded an 87-68-48 MLS Regular Season record and a 10-5-2 MLS postseason record while being named MLS Coach of the Year and Concacaf Coach of the Year in 2017. As Toronto FC's coach, the former Galaxy defender helped lead his side to the MLS Cup Playoffs in five of the previous six seasons (2015, 2016, 2017, 2019, 2020), while making appearances in three MLS Cup Finals (2016, 2017, 2019) and the Concacaf Champions League Final (2018). He also helped his side capture three-straight Canadian Championships (2016, 2017, 2018).

As a player, Vanney made 270 total MLS Regular Season appearances, including 193 as a member of the LA Galaxy, tied with Todd Dunivant for the sixth-most appearances of any player in LA Galaxy history and trailing only Cobi Jones (306), Landon Donovan (253), Kevin Hartman (243), Mauricio Cienfuegos (206) and A.J. De-LaGarza (204). With LA, Vanney helped lead the club to a Supporters' Shield (1998), CONCACAF Champions' Cup (2000) and U.S. Open Cup (2001) while being named to the MLS Best XI twice (2000, 2001) and earning honors as LA Galaxy Defender of the Year (2001). He also made an additional 32 MLS Cup Playoff appearances, including 26 postseason appearances with the Galaxy.

Vanney began his professional playing career after being drafted by the Galaxy from UCLA with the 17th overall selection in the 1996 MLS College Draft. During his time as a professional, Vanney represented the Galaxy, FC Dallas, Colorado Rapids and D.C. United in Major League Soccer while also playing a stint for Bastia in France. He also earned 11 caps with the U.S. Men's National Team, making his debut in 1996 before later featuring in the 2005 Concacaf Gold Cup Championship and 2006 FIFA World Cup Qualifiers.

Following his retirement after the 2008 MLS season, Vanney served as the Real Salt Lake Youth Academy Director from 2008-2011 before joining Chivas USA as an assistant coach from 2011-2012. Vanney originally joined Toronto FC as the club's assistant general manager and academy director in 2013 before being named head coach and technical director on August 31, 2014.

NOTABLE QUOTES

LA Galaxy Head Coach Greg Vanney

On if this LA Galaxy team has the ability to reach the CCC Final:

"We do. We have to get healthy. We have got to get settled in here a little bit. We look forward to the international break, because we'll get a couple of weeks of training that we can work on some things, [because] we're just going from game and recovery to game. So, we have some quality. It's really difficult to get to the final and to win the final. It's a challenge. So, we've got to do a lot of things well. We've got to execute well, but there's some potential in the locker room for us to be able to do something like that."

On taking this win and finding consistency this season:

"I think in MLS, we've done our own undoing. We were at home, and in the first match, we were up 1-0, very in control of the game and took a red card on a penalty, which made it 1-1. We end up in a draw. We win the second 3-0, and we looked like we had a complete performance. The third, we take another yellow card, take another red card, and we end up losing a game that we are very much in at 1-1 and playing well. So, I think for us, we can't be our own worst enemies. We've got to be able to, again, find the solutions inside of the game, execute and make sure that we play solid, and we don't make any mistakes that hurt ourselves. In the last game, again, we had more chances, more opportunity, more possession, which doesn't always mean everything. We gave up two goals off of two counterattacks, and we need to be cleaner in those situations. We've got to take care of our own business, and we've got to make sure that we can do a better job of executing on our side."

On how the team is planning to prepare for the Quarterfinals against Toluca:

"Well, we have a short turnaround coming into Portland here on the weekend, so all of our attention will be on that. Then, we have a couple weeks between games because of the international break. As we go through that couple of weeks, we'll try to prepare for the next series of games, which will include Minnesota at home, plus on the road at Toluca, which is always going to be a challenge. It'll follow with another road game, and then a home game against Toluca, and then another road game. So, the next stretch of games is going to be really difficult. We'll use the two weeks in the international break to sort of try to map out and look at our opponents and see what's in front of us. Right now, there's only one thing in front of us that we're concerned about, and that's preparing for Portland."
