POSTGAME QUOTES

On overall impressions of tonight's match:

"The last two games we positioned ourselves to walk off the field with a point and failed to finish out the games properly. Obviously, you can question whether there was a foul on that play that led to the third goal. ... The fact that we spent all that time on Benji [Kikanović]'s yellow card, but they don't go to VAR on a couple other plays was confusing. But listen, give Dallas credit. They played really hard. We did our best to give the game away by giving away goals at the start of both halves and missing a penalty kick, so we can't point fingers at VAR. We gotta accept it."

On the message to the group after back-to-back last-minute losses:

"We're at the end of both games where we have a point, and if we lock it down, we walk off the field with a point in both games. That's how a good, experienced team deals with both of these games, and we failed to do that."

On the team's defensive breakdown and the sequence leading to Dallas' late goal:

"Towards the end, I think we got a little over-excited after Reid's goal and really wanted to go win the game. Maybe we needed to focus first on not conceding. It's something we have to learn moving forward, every point matters. Obviously, we always want to win, but if we can't win, then we have to make sure we don't lose. I think at the end we just got caught. In my opinion, I think it was a foul on me, but that's not an excuse. We have to be better and more organized defensively, make sure we don't concede, and then look to go win it from there."

On the team's mentality after tonight's result and the message to the younger players:

"I think it's a learning process. We play a lot of young guys, so it's normal that mistakes are going to happen, and even I've made mistakes. We just have to do a better job of limiting them and always being in the right positions so if someone does make a mistake, there's another guy there to cover. I think today I could've been a little more vocal with the group, especially in the 90th minute at 2-2, maybe telling everyone to hold back a bit. Like I said before, if we can't win the game, we have to make sure we don't lose it. So I think that's on me a little bit. But like you said, it's a learning experience. We'll move on from this, get back to the drawing board, and make sure we get it right for the next game."

MLS PLAYER OF THE MONTH HONOREES

April: Timo Werner

San Jose Earthquakes forward Timo Werner was voted the MLS Player of the Month for April 2026. In April, Werner finished tied for the MLS lead with seven goal contributions (four goals, three assists) and pulled the strings for an Earthquakes squad that went 5-0-0 with a league-best +13 goal differential. From April 19 to April 25, Werner became the first player in club history to produce three straight games with at least one goal and one assist.

Since joining San Jose in the Primary Transfer Window, Werner has four goals and five assists in just 455 minutes of regular-season action. Among players with at least nine goal contributions this season, only Nashville SC's Sam Surridge (440) has played in fewer minutes than Werner. His nine goal contributions are also tied for the most by a player in their first MLS season (Houston Dynamo FC's Guilherme).

Head-to-Head

Regular-Season Record vs. Portland Timbers: 7-19-11 (42 GF, 62 GA); Away vs. Portland: 0-14-5 (15 GF, 38 GA); Last Away Game vs. Portland: 6/13/2025 (D, 1-1)

Storylines

- GETTING BACK ON TRACK: San Jose is 9-3-2 (31 GF, 14 GA) in MLS play and tied on 29 points for first in both the Western Conference standings with Vancouver, but are second to the 'Caps due to goal differential. Meanwhile, Portland is 4-7-2 with 14 points (21 GF, 25 GA) and are 12th in the West. However, both teams are coming off losses: SJ at home to FC Dallas (3-2) and Portland on the road to Inter Miami CF (2-0).
- RECENT SJ vs. POR HISTORY: Controversy marred the Quakes' last two trips to Portland, where they still seek their first-ever win at Providence Park in the MLS era. In 2024, then-SJ defender Bruno Wilson was sent off in the 71st minute and the Quakes leading 2-0. Portland scored four unanswered goals in a 4-2 victory in the succeeding 19 minutes that San Jose played with 10 men. The Competition Committee later rescinded the red card days after the game and Wilson was reinstated for the next game. It was the last time SJ dropped points after leading by 2 goals. Then in the 2025 trip to Portland, Ian Harkes was sent off in the 52nd minute, leaving the Quakes with a man disadvantage the remainder of the game. However, Preston Judd salvaged a point with a 90th-minute goal to draw 1-1. Again, the Competition Committee rescinded the red card days later and Harkes was reinstated for the following match.
- HISTORIC START: The Quakes' 9-3-2 start is the best in club history after 14 games, dating back to their inception in 1974, eclipsing the start in 2012 (8-3-3), which ended in SJ capturing the Supporters' Shield. San Jose won 9 of its first 10 MLS matches to open the season, the first time in the post-shootout era that a MLS team has done so. San Jose already sits on 29 points in May—something that didn't occur until July of last season. With just two more wins, they would already match the 2025 campaign's total of 11.
- ROAD WARRIORS: SJ's 3-2 road loss in Seattle on May 13 marked their first one of the season after tying an MLS record by starting 5-0-1 on the road, matching the 2022 Red Bull NY team.
- NO REST AT ALL: After 8 games in 28 days from April 4-May 2, followed by just 6 days rest, they are playing their 5th of 5 games in 15 days from May 9-23 before the World Cup break.
- NEVER SAY DIE: The Quakes have faced a one-goal deficit in seven of their last eight games across all competitions this season (outside of the 1-1 MLS regular-season draw with Vancouver on May 9) and equalized in all seven (April 22: Down 1-0 vs. Austin FC and won 5-1; April 25: Down 2-1 vs. St. Louis CITY SC and won 3-2; April 28: Down 2-1 vs. Minnesota United FC in the Lamar U.S. Open Cup Rd. of 16 and won 4-2; May 2: Down 1-0 vs. Toronto FC and drew 1-1; May 13: Down 2-1 vs. Seattle Sounders FC, tied 2-2, but lost 3-2; May 16: Down 1-0 and 2-0 vs. FC Dallas, tied 1-1 and 2-2, but lost 3-2). San Jose also continues to not have faced a two-goal deficit at any point in the 2026 campaign.
- YOU SHALL NOT PASS: San Jose has only conceded more than one goal in a game in 3 of 14 league games so far and are fourth in MLS in goals conceded (14).
  - San Jose remains the only team to not concede a single goal from a set piece in MLS play (0), nor have they conceded a goal from outside the box as well.
  - Speed demons: Daniel Munie is tied for fourth in terms of top speed among all MLS players at 22.36 mph, with Jamar Ricketts sitting in ninth at 22.34 mph. Munie's speed is the fastest among center backs in the league. Ricketts' and Munie's figures also put them among the fastest defenders in MLS. NE's Peyton Miller has the fastest speed so far (22.76 mph).
- PICK YOUR POISON: 7 different Quakes have 2+ goals in MLS play (Preston Judd, Beau Leroux, Niko Tsakiris, Ousseni Bouda, Daniel Munie, Jack Skahan, Timo Werner) while 8 different Quakes have 2+ assists (Bouda, Beau Leroux, Judd, Paul Marie, Munie, Jamar Ricketts, Tsakiris, Werner).

Connections

- BACK TO THE ROSE CITY: Quakes Goalkeepers Coach Adin Brown finished his playing career with the Portland Timbers (2010-11), before coaching in POR from 2015-20. Nick Fernandez also returns to Portland, where he played five seasons as a member of the University of Portland Pilots (2020-24) and was 3x All-WCC first team.
- SHARED HERITAGE: San Jose and Portland share roots in the North American Soccer League (NASL). The Quakes joined the league in 1974 and the Timbers followed one year later.

BY THE NUMBERS

7.7

"I believe in the American player." - Bruce Arena

No team in MLS has started more Americans on average in 2026 than SJ, with 70% of the minutes going to them.

19

Number of college players on the Quakes' roster, tops in MLS.

22.36/22.34

miles per hour are the top speeds of Daniel Munie and Jamar Ricketts, the #2 and #3 FASTEST defenders in MLS per Sportec.

NEXT MAN UP: DEPTH BY A THOUSAND BLOWS

In the offseason, the trio of Josef Martínez (14g/2a), Chicho Arango (13g/7a) & Cristian Espinoza (4g/12a), who accounted for 31 of SJ's 60 goals (52%) and 21 of 41 assists (51%), all left. But a closer look at the stats shows that not only have their replacements excelled in filling the gap, the overall depth is even better than last year despite making only one incoming transfer.

AFTER 14 LEAGUE GAMES IN 2025:

MARTÍNEZ: 6g/1a    CHICHO: 9g/2a    ESPINOZA: 4g/8a

MARTÍNEZ/CHICHO/ESPINOZA: 19g/11a

REST OF TEAM: 10g/15a

AFTER 14 LEAGUE GAMES IN 2026:

WERNER: 4g/5a    JUDD: 9g/2a    BOUDA: 5g/3a

RICKETTS: 3a    TSAKIRIS: 2g/7a    SKAHAN: 2g/1a    MARIE: 4a
 FERNANDEZ: 1g/1a    LEROUX: 2g/4a    VIEIRA: 1a    JASINSKI: 1g
 ROMNEY: 1g    ROBERTS: 1g/1a    MUNIE: 2g/2a    ADIMABUA: 1a

WERNER/JUDD/BOUDA: 18g/10a

REST OF TEAM: 13g/25a

After beating the USL version of the Timbers twice in as many tries in the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup (2004, 2005), the Quakes have yet to beat the MLS Timbers in 19 previous regular-season games (2011-25) and 2 Open Cup battles (2016, 2018).

STILL IN THE HUNT

Not since 2012 have the Quakes been in contention for multiple trophies this deep into the season, especially as we head into the break during the FIFA World Cup.

NEVER SAY DIE: THE GOONIES 2.0

The Quakes have faced a one-goal deficit in six of their last eight games across all competitions this season (outside of the 1-1 MLS regular-season draw with Vancouver on May 9) and equalized in all six despite losing their last two. San Jose's defense also continues to not have faced a two-goal deficit at any point in the 2026 campaign.

ONGOING SEASON STORYLINES

The Bruce Bump: Year 2 Track Record

Bruce Arena is the most accomplished coach in American soccer history, but a closer look at his resume at MLS level reveals a terrifying trend for his opponents once he has a full year to lay his foundation:

- D.C. United (1997): After building the team from scratch and winning the inaugural MLS Cup presented by Audi in 1996, Arena's second season cemented a dynasty. D.C. United captured the Supporters' Shield and went back-to-back to win the 1997 MLS Cup.
- Red Bull New York (2007): Arena only coached one full season after joining New York midway through 2006, but he still steered the team to the 2007 Playoffs if we consider that "Year 2".
- LA Galaxy (2010): After taking the helm in late 2008 and reaching the final in his first full year, Arena's second full season in 2010 resulted in a Supporters' Shield, laying the groundwork for the Galaxy's back-to-back MLS Cup run.
- New England Revolution (2021): Arena arrived in Foxborough in mid-2019. By 2021—his second full season in charge—he orchestrated a historic campaign, capturing the Supporters' Shield while shattering the MLS single-season points record (73 points).

Timo Time in San Jose

The Earthquakes acquired German international Timo Werner from German Bundesliga side Red Bull Leipzig on a permanent transfer in the offseason and signed him to a Designated Player contract through June 2028. Werner comes to Major League Soccer as the biggest signing in Earthquakes history following a distinguished career that includes a UEFA Champions League title and a parade of trophies at every level, compiling 154 goals across all competitions over an illustrious career in the Bundesliga and English Premier League representing RB Leipzig (over three occasions), Tottenham Hotspur, Chelsea FC and VfB Stuttgart.

A multifaceted attacker known as "Turbo Timo" for his pace and ability to accelerate, he has vast experience playing both wing positions, as a second striker and up front at center forward. In addition to being a prolific scorer and clinical finisher, Werner has displayed a proclivity to create chances for his teammates, as evidenced by his 54 career assists in league play alone.

Belief in the American Player

It's only fitting that the most decorated coach in American soccer history has put together a team that leads the league in domestic players. No team in MLS has more college players on the roster (19) or averaged more American players in the starting 11 more in 2026 than Bruce Arena's Earthquakes (7.8).

The Fastest Back Line in the League

The Quakes achieved their first 3-0-0 start since starting MLS play in 1996, opening with clean sheets over Sporting Kansas City, Atlanta United FC and the Philadelphia Union. With three straight shutouts, the Quakes were just one game away from tying the club record of four consecutive set in August 2015. They have since recorded two more in the following three games to match the clean sheet total of all last season (5).

A big key to that success has been the back line, starting with the center back pairing of former SuperDraft first-round selections Daniel Munie (2023) and local pick Reid Roberts out of the Univ. of San Francisco (2025). Converted forwards Jamar Ricketts (2024 Rd. 1) on the left (who replaced DeJuan Jones after an unfortunate Achilles injury) and Benji Kikanović (signed out of college) on the right round out this speedy foursome. Munie (22.36 mph) and Ricketts (22.34 mph) are among the top three defenders in MLS when it comes to top speed.

Daniel the Protector Back in Form

Daniel, often considered one of the elite goalkeepers in MLS when healthy, has returned to form in 2026. His shot-stopping at key moments is a big part of the Quakes' 9-1-2 start with five clean sheets. Daniel's second-half save against Sporting Kansas City in the Feb. 21 season opener had a post-shot expected goals figure of 0.85 per Fotmob, a club record.

In the first 13 league games, the Brazilian has only conceded 11 times. His goals against average stands at just 0.84.

A Coming-of-Age Core

While Timo Werner's debut has garnered the lion's share of headlines, the attacking core around him has produced to fuel the Quakes' hot start. Werner's first three assists were to former SuperDraft first-round pick Oussemi Bouda out of Stanford (five goals), while Preston Judd leads SJ with a career-high nine goals in the early going as well. Another SuperDraft first-round pick, Jamar Ricketts, also had two assists in the first three matches, which signifies San Jose's belief in domestic players, but also their ability to perform in MLS. Reid Roberts, a SuperDraft first-rounder pick out of USF, has worked himself into a stabilizing presence in the Starting XI and earned Team of the Matchday honors on May 4 after making one of the defensive plays of the year to secure a 1-1 draw in Toronto.

Academy Alumni in the Midfield

While captain Ronaldo Vieira is the enforcer in defensive midfield, he partners with a pair of local boys with origins in the Quakes Academy. Niko Tsakiris from nearby Saratoga and Beau Leroux from San Jose both played in the Earthquakes' youth system before making it to the first team. Tsakiris has started the season in central attacking midfield with seven assists and Leroux, a box-to-box midfielder and San Jose State University alum, has one goal and four assists so far in 2026 league play. However, Tsakiris underwent groin surgery May 12 and is expected to be out 3-4 months.

Investments in Infrastructure

Since Bruce Arena's arrival as Head Coach/Sporting Director, ownership's investment in the club's infrastructure in and around PayPal Park to stay competitive in a burgeoning league has been readily apparent.

In the stadium, the club committed $1 million during the offseason toward a revamped Habbas Law Epicenter, the fan zone behind the North End scoreboard, which includes new furniture/decor/activations as well as the Longest Outdoor Bar in North America and the new Rank+Rally Team Store, which has quadrupled in size. This renovation comes off the heels of the installment of 11 KS28 high-powered dual subwoofers by L-Acoustics, along with a brand-new DJ Booth last year. The Bermudagrass playing surface is also brand new for 2026.

The upgrades have extended to the area outside the stadium, too. The club added a second Bermudagrass field to the adjacent Training Facility, and across the street from PayPal Park, there is a new coach's office, conference room, video meeting room, players' lounge and dining hall.

QUAKES FOUNDATION COMMUNITY HIGHLIGHTS

One Ball Can Change a Life

For over 50 years, the Earthquakes have witnessed firsthand the power of soccer to change lives through a variety of ways, like building individual character and creativity, fostering collective values like teamwork, offering safe spaces to play and dream, and even opening doors to new worlds. To turn this vision into action, the club will donate 15,000 soccer balls to the community this year in support of transformational Quakes Foundation programming, which includes school visits, the club's growing Saturday Night Lights futsal program, youth tournaments, clinics, camps and other events throughout Northern California.

"Our work in local communities shows us every day the lasting impact a soccer ball can have on a young life in helping to both create positive outcomes and helping steer kids away from negative ones," said Earthquakes VP of Community Relations Robert Davis. "That is why every soccer ball matters; one ball can literally make an incredible difference."

Saturday Night Lights presented by CalHOPE

A new program under the Quakes Foundation, launched in April, was Saturday Night Lights presented by CalHOPE. This was a 10-week pilot offering free, safe futsal nights for youth in underserved San Jose neighborhoods. The program was hosted at two sites, including LeyVa Middle School and Washington United Youth Center. The program combined soccer, mentorship, food, and mental health support to create a trusted space on weekend nights.

The impact was real: 100% of LeyVa participants were promoted to high school (including several at-risk students), with zero disciplinary incidents and increased school attendance. Families reported stronger connections, better behavior at home, and more positive views of law enforcement.

52K Meals

in partnership with the PG&E Foundation

For the 2026 season, the Quakes Foundation and the PG&E Corporation Foundation continued their partnership to address the growing issue of food insecurity in the Bay Area and its surrounding areas.

Through the 52,000 Meals program, the Quakes Foundation awarded monetary grants to 12 impactful nonprofits in East SJ, Gilroy, Watsonville, Salinas, E. Palo Alto and Merced.

Get EQ Fit

presented by El Camino Health

Get Earthquakes Fit, presented by El Camino Health, is a five-week health and fitness program designed for third and fourth-grade students. The program features 10 interactive games that promote physical activity while reinforcing healthy nutrition habits. Designed to be simple and turnkey for educators, the curriculum requires minimal preparation while remaining fun, engaging, and educational for students.

The program concluded with closing ceremonies at each participating school, celebrating student achievements with special appearances from Earthquakes players.

Quakes Unified

The Quakes Unified Special Olympics soccer team integrates individuals with intellectual disabilities (Special Olympics athletes) and individuals without intellectual disabilities (Unified player partners) to compete together on one team. Quakes Unified conducts regular training sessions and participates in competition against other MLS Unified teams.

On July 19, the Quakes Unified Special Olympics team traveled to Los Angeles for its first major road trip. The inaugural Unified California Clásico, hosted by LAFC, featured Unified teams representing the San Jose Earthquakes, LA Galaxy, LAFC, and Sacramento Republic FC. Quakes Unified concluded the tournament with a second-place finish.

BRUCE ARENA

SPORTING DIRECTOR & HEAD COACH

Bruce Arena is the winningest coach in MLS and U.S. Men's National Team history. The 2026 season will mark his 21st season coaching at domestic club level, with stops at the New England Revolution (2019-23), LA Galaxy (2008-16), New York Red Bulls (2006-07) and D.C. United (1996-98).

Arena has raised the MLS Cup an unprecedented five times (1996, 1997, 2011, 2012, 2014), the Supporters' Shield four times (1997, 2010, 2011, 2021), the Concacaf Champions Cup (1998), the Copa Interamericana (1998) and the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup (1996). He has won the most regular-season games (270) and postseason games (35) in MLS history and been named MLS Sigi Schmid Coach of the Year a record four times (1997, 2009, 2011, 2021).

At the international level, he led the U.S. Men's National Team to heights previously unseen in the modern era. During his tenure in charge, the USMNT reached two FIFA World Cups (1998, 2002) — making the quarterfinals for the first time in 72 years in 2002 — while winning the Concacaf Gold Cup three times (2002, 2005, 2017) and finishing as the team's career leader in victories (81).

Arena, a native of Long Island, New York, also won five NCAA national championships (1988, 1991, 1992, 1993, 1994) during his time as head coach at the University of Virginia from 1978-95.

COACHING STAFF

Dave Sarachan comes to San Jose as an accomplished leader in his own right, having won the MLS Coach of the Year award (2003), the Supporters' Shield (2003) and the U.S. Open Cup twice (2003, 2006) as head coach of Chicago Fire FC from 2002-07. Most recently, he was an assistant coach for Maccabi Tel Aviv, winning the Israeli Premier League and qualifying for the UEFA Champions League in his lone season with the Yellows (2023-24). Sarachan joins Arena for the sixth time, having previously served as an assistant coach on his staff at club level with the Galaxy (2008-16) and D.C. United (1997-99), as well as for two different eras on the U.S. Men's National Team (1999-2002, 2017) and the University of Virginia (1984-87). Alongside Arena, Sarachan has won four MLS Cups (1998, 2011, 2012, 2014), two Supporters' Shields (2010, 2011), one Concacaf Champions Cup (1998), one Copa Interamericana (1998) and two Concacaf Gold Cups (2002, 2017). During that second spell with the USMNT, Sarachan succeeded Arena as interim head coach (2017-18). A native of Rochester, N.Y., Sarachan possesses further head coaching experience with the Puerto Rico national team (2021-22), North Carolina FC in USL Championship (2018-20) and collegiately at Cornell University (1988-97).

Shalrie Joseph joins Arena for the second time after serving as his assistant coach in New England (2022-23) and as an assistant for the club's Supporters' Shield-winning campaign in 2021 while coaching various age groups in the Revolution Academy (2020-22). A native of Grenada who earned 20 caps and scored one goal with them as a player, Joseph took the helm as head coach of his national team from 2018-19. He eventually led The Spice Boys toward qualification for the 2021 Concacaf Gold Cup and promotion to League A in the 2019-20 Concacaf Nations League. As a standout midfielder who played 13 MLS seasons (2003-15)—11 with the Revs—Joseph was selected eight consecutive times for the MLS All-Star Game (2004-11) and received four MLS Best XI nods (2005, 2007-09). In N.E., he was teammates with current Quakes assistants Steve Ralston and Adin Brown, with the full trio overlapping from 2003-04. Joseph, a St. John's University alum, ended up playing in three MLS Cup finals (2005-07) for the Revs, capturing the North American SuperLiga in 2008 as well as the U.S. Open Cup in 2007.

Steve Ralston originally joined the Earthquakes as an assistant coach in 2015 after four years in the same capacity with Houston Dynamo FC. He took over as interim head coach of the Quakes for the final six games of 2018. After three years away, he returned to San Jose as an interim assistant coach in 2022. A native of St. Louis and Florida International University alumnus, Ralston retired from MLS in 2010 as the league's all-time leader in assists (135), games played (378), starts (372), and minutes (33,143). He scored 76 goals over 13 MLS seasons and played in four MLS Cup finals for New England, serving as captain (2007-09) and winning the North American SuperLiga in 2008 and the U.S. Open Cup in 2007. Ralston was named an MLS All-Star seven times and received MLS Best XI recognition three times (1999, 2000, 2002). At international level, he earned 36 caps for the U.S. (1997-2007) and scored four goals, winning the 2007 Concacaf Gold Cup.

Adin Brown returns to the Earthquakes as goalkeeper coach. Brown most recently served as goalkeeper coach for Chicago Fire FC (2020-22). Prior to joining Chicago, Brown was goalkeeper coach for the Portland Timbers (2015-17) and Timbers2 (2018-19), helping the club win its first MLS Cup in 2015. He also served in the same role for the University of Portland (2013-15). Brown, a native of Pleasant Hill, California, and graduate of De La Salle High School, attended the College of William & Mary and was just the third goalkeeper in NCAA history to be named a First-Team All-American twice. The third overall pick in the 2000 MLS SuperDraft, Brown appeared 85 times over seven seasons, making his mark with New England (2002-04) where he posted a 1.42 goals against average over three years and had the Revs on the brink of winning the 2002 MLS Cup. He also played abroad for Aalesund FK (2005-09), helping lead them to the Norwegian top tier in 2007. Internationally, Brown was the U.S. starting keeper throughout qualification for the 2000 Summer Olympics but missed the final competition due to injury.
