CROWN KICKOFF

- In the last 15 league matches, the Crown are 7-3-5, taking 26 of a possible 45 points. In comparison, Charlotte FC grabbed just 21 points the first 14 league matches with a 6-6-3 mark.
- Head Coach Dean Smith's 46 regular-season wins are a club-best and sit tied-fourth in MLS history with Jesse Marsch for wins through their first three seasons (post-shootout era).
- The Crown have accrued the fourth most amount of points over the last 15 matches, tied with FC Dallas, with 32 points and a 9-3-5 record, trailing only Philadelphia (12-1-4, 40 pts.), St. Louis (11-1-5, 38 pts.) and Nashville (11-2-4, 37 pts).
- CLTFC are only three points away from posting its third-straight 50 point season.
- If The Crown wins either of its final two road matches, it would tie the Club's record for most road wins in a single-season. CLTFC is only one point away from the most road points in a season in Club history.
- Saturday's matchup with the Portland Timbers marks the second meeting all-time and first since 2024. The Crown came out on top in the first matchup, defeating the Timbers 2-0 at Bank of America Stadium on May 4, 2024 with goals from Nikola Petkovic and Enzo Copetti.
- Idan Toklomati has been red hot in his last 10 matches, tallying eight goals and two assists. Since Aug. 19, Toklomati is tied for sixth in goals scored across MLS, trailing only Lionel Messi (13), Antoine Griezmann (11), Milan Iloski, Kelvin Yeboah and Bruno Damiani (9). He ranks second in the squad in goal contributions this season with 18 (13G+5A).
- Toklomati was named to the MLS Team of the Matchday for Matchday 31 after notching a goal and assist in the Club's 2-2 draw at the Union. Toklomati's goal marked his 13th of the season, setting a new Club record of goals scored in a single MLS season, passing Karol Swiderski's previous record set in 2023 (12).
- Goalkeeper Kristijan Kahlina is having a Goalkeeper of the Year-caliber season, approaching numbers haven't seen in more than two decades. There have been six instances of keeper producing at least 150 saves in a season season, with the most recent being Joe Cannon in 2004. Kahlina is nine saves shy of that mark (141) and has recorded four matches with at least nine saves.
- Kahlina's 141 saves are tied for the second-most in a 34-match season, just two behind record holder Brad Studver (143 in 2024).
- Beninese winger Rodolfo Aloko tallied his second goal of the year to bring the match level at the Union. He has added two goals and six assists in all comps. since his promotion from Crown Legacy.
- Fullback David Schnegg is having a career season with The Crown. The Austrian tallied his seventh assist of the MLS season and ninth across all comps., tying him with captain Ashley Westwood for most assists on the year among CLTFC players.

PARTY AT THE BANK

- Bank of America Stadium, home to Charlotte FC and the Carolina Panthers, has been a fortress for The Crown since 2022 when the club entered MLS. The Crown ranks in the Top 10 amongst MLS teams at home, sitting second in points (153) wins (45) since 2022.

Team	Points	Record
Los Angeles FC	173	53-14-14
Charlotte FC	157	46-18-19
Columbus Crew	153	44-16-21

Real Salt Lake	139	41-23-16

- 👑 CLTFC has tallied 13 clean sheets in the last 31 home regular-season matches. In 78 MLS regular-season home matches, Charlotte has tallied 33 clean sheets. Under Head Coach Dean Smith, The Crown have compiled 22 clean sheets in the last 48 matches at Bank of America Stadium.
- 👑 Offensively, Charlotte has recorded multi-goal performances in the 22 of the last 31 matches at home and have compiled a plus-34 goal differential with 65 goals scored and 31 goals allowed.
- 👑 Alongside their defensive prowess at home, Charlotte FC has picked up points by the bunches and reached at least 100 points at home on April 4 vs. Nashville. In 55 matches, CLTFC accrued a 29-12-14 mark at home for 101 points, to become the fifth-fastest team in MLS to reach 100 points at home in the post-shootout era.
- 👑 The Crown's comeback victory over FC Dallas on October 10, 2026, marked the Club's 50th win in Bank of America Stadium in all competitions.

MALLORCAN MAGICIAN

- 👑 Spanish midfielder Pep Biel etched his name in Charlotte FC's history books with his goal at FC Cincinnati on Sept. 12, 2026, passing Karol Swiderski for the all-time goal contribution lead in Club history with 51 (24G+25A).
- 👑 The Spaniard became the first player in Charlotte FC history to reach the 20G/20A club on July 25, 2026, with his match-winning goal at New York Red Bull.
- 👑 Biel became the Club's first player to reach the 50 goal contribution mark after posting two assists in the comeback victory over FC Dallas on October 10, 2026.
- 👑 Biel reached the mark in just 52 matches, tying him with former MLS MVP Hany Mukhtar as the 13th fastest player in league history to join the 20G/20A club.

- 👑 Biel also tops Charlotte FC's all-time list in and match-winning assists (Eight). and third match-winning goals (Nine).

THE 2ND DEAN SMITH OF NORTH CAROLINA

- 👑 In the college basketball realm and in the US, Dean Smith is known as a coaching legend where he coached at the University of North Carolina for 36 years. Smith totaled 879 wins, two NCAA Tournament Championships, 13 ACC Tournament championships and 17 ACC Regular-Season titles. In 2024, Charlotte FC hired English manager Dean Smith, who most notably managed at Aston Villa.
- 👑 In just his first two MLS seasons, Dean won 33 matches in MLS, which placed him eight all-time in league history. Over those two seasons, The Crown has improved in all areas of the team, including home wins, road wins, goals scored, goals allowed, clean sheets and back-to-back playoff appearances.
- 👑 On July 25 at RBNY, Smith notched his 100th match managed with the Club, posting a 43W-36L-21D record in all competitions since joining on Dec. 12, 2023.
- 👑 On March 7, Dean improved to 3-0-0 in home openers and won his 34th MLS Regular-Season match. His last win in Atlanta moves him into a tie for fifth with Mike Petke for wins through his first three managerial seasons (post-shootout era):

1. Steve Cherundolo	54-27-21	2022 -- 2024
2. Pat Noonan	50-25-27	2022 -- 2024

- Just before the Roster Freeze deadline, Charlotte FC announced the signings of free agent midfielder Abdoulaye Doucouré and Crown Legacy FC forwards Nathan Richmond and Hugo Mbongue.
- Doucouré spent most of his professional career in the English Premier League, accruing 278 appearances between Watford FC and Everton FC.
- Doucouré featured for Watford from the 2015-16 season through the 2019-20 campaign, recording 141 appearances, with 17 goals and 12 assists. He then made the move to Everton, tallying 166 appearances to go along with 21 goals and 14 assists. His most notable EPL goal came on the final match day of the 2022-23 season, scoring the match-winning goal over AFC Bournemouth in a 1-0 victory that would keep the Toffees in the top flight for their 69th-straight season.
- Richmond, 22, earned a First Team contract after a standout season with the Club's MLS NEXT Pro affiliate, helping lead them to the top spot in the East while adding a team-high 19 goal contributions (9G+10A), which also earned him four Short-Term Agreements before his permanent signing.
- Richmond enjoyed a four-year collegiate career with the Tigers, appearing in 50 matches and totaling 13 goals and 12 assists. The Atlanta native had a breakout sophomore season en route to an NCAA National Championship and ACC Tournament Championship. His 5G+5A earned him a nod to the All-ACC Third Team and selection by Charlotte FC in the SuperDraft.
- Following the SuperDraft, Richmond returned to Clemson but missed most of his junior season due to a season-ending injury. He returned in 2025 and posted his best statistical season, notching 7G+5A, landing him on the All-ACC Second Team.
- Mbongue, 22, spent most of the 2026 season with Crown Legacy FC, where he garnered an MLS NEXT Pro Best XI Honorable Mention after scoring 14 goals and adding four assists in 22 appearances, helping CLFC claim the top spot in the Eastern Conference.
- Prior to joining the Club, Mbongue signed a Homegrown contract with Toronto FC on Sept. 13, 2022, and made 14 appearances for TFC in all competitions, including his senior debut against Philadelphia Union on Oct. 9, 2022. He joined Toronto's Academy in 2018 and signed an MLS NEXT Pro contract with Toronto FC II on May 27, 2022.
- The forward spent most of his time with Toronto on loan in USL and the Canadian Premier League, capped off with a stint with Vancouver FC, where he bagged seven goals and two assists in 15 matches en route to a Canadian Cup Final matchup against the Vancouver Whitecaps, where he faced off against his brother, Ralph Priso.

MAXI-MUM IMPACT

- 👑 Charlotte FC announced on Monday, July 13, that the Club signed French forward Allan Saint-Maximin to a three-year Designated Player contract, which will run through the 2028-29 season. Saint-Maximin will occupy a Designated Player spot and international roster slot on the Club's current roster.
- 👑 Since joining The Crown, the winger has tallied one goal and six assists in just 10 MLS Regular Season matches. Through 755 minutes, Saint-Maximin is averaging a 0.79 goal contributions per 90 minutes played.
- 👑 Before his time in the Queen City, French forward most recently won a Coupe de France title with RC Lens, which was a first in club history. Saint-Maximin's arrival at Lens in February bolstered their side, and he helped propel them to a second-place finish in Ligue 1 for just the sixth time in the club's 120-year existence. He tallied four goals and three assists in 13 matches across all competitions.
- 👑 Saint-Maximin made a name for himself in the Premier League, where he spent four seasons with Newcastle United. Over the years, the winger dazzled at St. James Park and scored 13 goals and added 21 assists in 124 appearances. In his final season at Newcastle, the Magpies finished fourth place in the Premier League and qualified for the Champions League for the first time since 2003.
- 👑 In the summer of 2023, he transferred from Newcastle to Saudi Arabian side Al-Ahli on a reported deal approaching $30 million. He featured 30 times in the Saudi Pro League, scoring 4 goals and adding 9 assists.
- 👑 He was loaned for the 2024-25 season to Fenerbahçe in the Turkish Super League, where he played 31 times across all competitions, including the UEFA Champions League and Europa League, and added 8 goal contributions for the Istanbul club.
- 👑 Prior to joining Lens, he featured 16 times for Club America in Liga MX and tallied five goal contributions. Saint-Maximin began his career as a 16-year-old at Saint-Étienne before earning a move to AS Monaco in 2015. He enjoyed loans in the Bundesliga at Hannover 96 and for Ligue 1 side SC Bastia before securing a permanent move to OGC Nice in 2017. The Frenchman had a successful two years on the Mediterranean coast, where he compiled 11 goals and 15 assists in 74 appearances.

THE QUEEN CITY'S STARS

- On June 5, Major League Soccer announced the First XI players named to the 2026 MLS All-Star roster presented by Chime. The First XI were decided by a fan and media vote. Among the headliners is CLTFC defender and USMNT captain Tim Ream, who will become the first player in Charlotte FC history to represent the Club in the annual All-Star match.
- On July 8, it was announced that midfielders Pep Biel and Ashley Westwood were each selected to Ream on the roster, each making their first appearance at an All-Star event. The duo were chosen by Charlotte FC and MLS All-Stars Head Coach Dean Smith to represent MLS in the friendly competition.
- Former striker Patrick Agyemang was the Club's first All-Star selection in its history, but was transferred to Derby County FC before the 2025 All-Star events in Austin, Texas.
- Also representing The Crown during the festivities were Academy players Jeremiah Alexander-Munoz and Daniel Brown, who represented the Eastern Conference in the MLS NEXT All-Star match on July 26 at Mecklenburg County Sportsplex, the home of Crown Legacy FC, the Club's MLS NEXT Pro side.

CHARLOTTE IS A SOCCER CITY

- 👑 Major League Soccer announced July 16, 2025, that Charlotte FC will host the 2026 MLS All-Star Game, marking a historic first for the club. The league's 30th All-Star matchup took place at Bank of America Stadium on July 29 in front of a crowd of 35,197 and was broadcast globally in over 100 countries and regions on Apple TV.
- 👑 The 2026 MLS All-Star Game marked the first-ever All-Star Game played at Bank of America Stadium and saw the MLS All-Stars defeat the LIGA MX All-Stars 4-3, with LAFC forward Son Heung-Min scoring a first half brace while Chicago and Cincinnati midfielders Philip Zinckernagel and Evander added to the tally.
- 👑 The event included a week-long celebration of soccer and culture for fans of all ages at venues throughout the city. These world-class events, including MLS All-Star Skills Challenge presented by AT&T played at Trust Point, MLS NEXT All-Star Game presented by Allstate played at Mecklenburg County Sportsplex, and MLS All-Star Soccer Celebration, featured community programming and entertainment for fans.
- 👑 Since its league debut in 2022, Charlotte FC has consistently ranked among the top two clubs in attendance across its first four seasons played at Bank of America Stadium, featuring at least 15 games with over 34,000 fans. The stadium has regularly drawn crowds of 50,000+ for international soccer which has included club and international friendlies, Copa America and the Club World Cup.
- 👑 Charlotte FC announced the Scotland National Team selected the Club's training facility as Team Base Camp training site for FIFA World Cup 2026™. The 52,000-square-foot facility provides a state-of-the-art setting for the Scottish FA's official training site and team headquarters as they prepare for Group C matches against Haiti, Morocco and Brazil.
- 👑 The facility, located in East Charlotte, opened in 2023 and features access to eight soccer fields for sporting and community use. The building houses all teams under the Charlotte FC umbrella including the First Team, the Club's second team, Crown Legacy FC, and all academy age groups. The facility features locker rooms for all teams, a cafeteria designed for player nutrition, and a 2,800-square-foot weight room. It is also home to the Club's business staff.
- 👑 Scotland returned to the FIFA World Cup™ for the first time since 1998 after finishing top of their group in UEFA qualifying outlasting Denmark in dramatic fashion on the final day of matches. The Scots are led by captain Andy Robertson (Liverpool), Serie A MVP award winner Scott McTominay (Napoli), and former Charlotte FC Head Coach Dean Smith disciple John McGinn (Aston Villa). Beyond McGinn, the Scottish connections to Charlotte FC flow to Technical Director Tommy Wilson who began his career as the Football Development Officer for the Scottish FA. Additionally, John Currie, the Club's Director of High Performance, spent over a decade in Scottish football with Celtic FC and Heart of Midlothian FC.
- 👑 This marked the second consecutive summer that Charlotte FC's facilities

- ## NEWEST HOMEGROWN

- ## EXPERIENCED NEW ADDITIONS

- ## CONTINUITY IS KEY

- 👑 Charlotte FC enters the 2026 season with a lot of familiar faces in terms of players and coaching staff. The Club's first two seasons didn't see the success they were looking for and change happened. However, with the last two seasons under Head Coach Dean Smith, there has been a spike of success along with small changes.
- 👑 Under Smith, CLTFC has tallied back-to-back 50 point, 14-plus win seasons. With the team allowing 52 goals in their first two seasons, Smith came in and improved the defensive side of the ball by allowing just 37 goals in 2024 and 46 goals in 2025. On the offensive side of the ball, the Club had its best two scoring seasons, tallying 46 goals in 2024 and 55 goals in 2025.
- 👑 The Crown returns 10 of 11 starters from last season and saw just seven players depart from last year's roster. Beyond just last year, Charlotte has six returning starters who have been with the club since 2023, four of which have been with the organization since its inception in 2022. Brandt Bronico, Nathan Byrne, Kristijan Kahlina, and Kerwin Vargas are the four who have been with the team since '22, while Andrew Privett and Ashley Westwood joined ahead of the '23 season.

- 👑 Charlotte FC announced on Feb. 19 that the Club has signed MLS SuperDraft defensive duo Will Cleary and Andrew Johnson to professional contracts ahead of the 2026 campaign. Both Cleary and Johnson are signed through the 2026 MLS season with a Club option for June of 2027, 2027-28 and 2028-29.
- 👑 Cleary, 23, was selected by Charlotte FC in the First Round of the 2026 MLS SuperDraft, taken with the 22nd overall pick out of Stanford University. He served as Stanford's senior captain in 2025, where he led one of the NCAA's strongest backlines to its fourth consecutive appearance in the Third Round of the NCAA tournament. The Windsor, Connecticut native made 79 career appearances with the Cardinal, 66 starts, and tallied six goals and nine assists across 6,119 minutes. Cleary also excelled off the pitch, garnering First Team Academic All-American honors in 2025, as well as conference academic nods in 2023 and 2025.
- 👑 Johnson, 22, was selected by Charlotte FC in the Second Round of the 2025 MLS SuperDraft, taken with the 47th overall selection out of Cornell University. The defender returned for his senior season where he captained the Big Red's backline to a top ten national ranking and garnered All-Northeast Region and unanimous First Team All-Ivy honors in 2025. He finished his four-year stint at Cornell with 69 appearances, all starts, five goals and one assist across 5,929 minutes. Prior to his collegiate career, Johnson spent five seasons with the Philadelphia Union Academy before transitioning to MLS NEXT side, FC Delco Academy.

3 TIM REAM

defender

St. Louis, Missouri | 10.5.1987 (39) | 6'1"

- Charlotte FC signed American defender Tim Ream on Aug. 7, 2024 as a free agent.
- Prior to his time in Charlotte, Ream spent the previous nine seasons with Fulham FC in both the English Premier League and English Championship. He amassed 312 appearances for the Cottagers and helped the club secure promotion to the Premier League on three separate occasions (2018, 2020, 2022). In a standout 2022-23 campaign, Ream made 33 appearances in the Premier League and helped the West London club to a finish in the top half of the English top flight for the first time in over a decade.
- Ream is a mainstay of the USMNT, having totaled 79 caps heading into the 2026 MLS Regular Season. He was included in the 2022 World Cup roster, currently serves as the country's captain and has won two Concacaf Nations League titles (2021 & 2024)

- Charlotte FC announced the signing of Israeli forward Idan Toklomati on Sept. 18, 2024. Toklomati originally joined the Crown Legacy FC, the Club's MLS NEXT Pro affiliate, from Maccabi Petah Tikva on Aug. 21, 2024.
- Toklomati had a breakout season in 2025 following the departure of forward Patrick Agyemang, earning the #3 spot on the MLS 22 Under 22 list. Through 36 matches in all competitions, Toklomati bagged 13 goals and added four assists, along with the Club's second-ever hat trick against Inter Miami CF, making him the seventh-youngest player in MLS history to do so.
- Down the final stretch of the season, Toklomati rode a seven match goal contribution streak, six of which being match winners.
- Prior to his time with CLTFC, Toklomati helped Maccabi Petah Tikva earn promotion to the Israeli Premier League with an 11 goal campaign in the 2022/23 season. He went on to score five goals in his first season in the top-flight in 2023/24. He made a total of 70 appearances with Maccabi Petah Tikva since he debuted at age 17, bagging 17 goals and seven assists.
