TIMBERS DROP 2-0 RESULT ON THE ROAD TO MINNESOTA UNITED FC

Portland to continue three-game road swing against San Diego FC on April 25

ST. PAUL, Minn. – The Portland Timbers dropped a 2-0 result on the road to Minnesota United FC at Allianz Field on Saturday evening. Tonight’s match marked the first of a three-game road swing for the Timbers; next up they will travel to face San Diego FC at Snapdragon Stadium on Saturday, April 25.

Goal-Scoring Plays

MIN – Kelvin Yeboah (Tomás Chancalay, Joaquín Pereyra), 60th minute: From the right wing, Joaquín Pereyra played a long diagonal ball over the top for Tomás Chancalay at the back post, where he slipped a first-time pass across the six-yard box. Kelvin Yeboah came crashing in to finish the play in the back of the net.

Notes

- Today’s match kicked off a three-game road swing for the Timbers.
- Portland repeated lineups in back-to-back matches for a second time this season.
