TIMBERS FALL 3-1 TO SAN JOSE EARTHQUAKES AT PROVIDENCE PARK

Portland resumes MLS play on July 16 at Seattle Sounders FC

PORTLAND, Ore.— The Portland Timbers fell 3-1 to the San Jose Earthquakes on Saturday night at Providence Park. The Quakes opened the scoring in the second minute of play and doubled their lead 10 minutes later. Antony would cut San Jose's lead in half with an 18th minute strike, however, the Earthquakes found a third in the 24th minute. The visitors secured the result following a scoreless second half. Next, Portland will resume MLS play on July 16, when they go on the road to face Seattle Sounders FC.

June Break Ahead

The Portland Timbers played their final game ahead of the June MLS break tonight, marking their 14th match of the campaign (4-8-2).
