TIMBERS2 EXTEND ROAD SHUTOUT WINNING STREAK FOLLOWING 1-0 VICTORY AT VANCOUVER WHITECAPS FC 2

Portland records fourth-straight win away from home without conceding

BURNABY, B.C. – Portland Timbers2 (7-2-4, 26pts) extended its current road shutout winning streak to four games following a 1-0 victory at Vancouver Whitecaps FC 2 (2-10-2, 9pts) at Swangard Stadium on Friday night. In a tightly contested battle from start to finish, T2 broke through in the 73rd minute of play courtesy of Daniel Cervantes' club-leading fourth goal of the season. Additionally, Sam Joseph registered five saves on the evening en route to his fifth clean sheet this year to help secure the three points.

Another One

Tonight's result marked a fourth-straight Timbers2 shutout on the road and fifth of the season, a second consecutive clean sheet overall, and seventh in total after 13 games played. Notably, the result marked goalkeeper Sam Joseph's team-leading fifth clean sheet in eight MLSNP appearances. The lone goal on the night vaulted forward Daniel Cervantes to top T2 goalscorer this campaign with four. Both Connor Ferguson and Lucas Fernandez-Kim recorded their second assists of the season, entering a four-way tie for the team lead in 2026 with Eric Izoita and Sawyer Jura. Notably, Fernandez-Kim has registered assists in consecutive matches, both being game-winners. In addition, Ferguson also registered a second game-winning assist for Portland this season with his pass to Cervantes in the 73rd minute of play.

Goal-Scoring Plays

POR – Daniel Cervantes (Connor Ferguson, Lucas Fernandez-Kim), 73rd minute: Lucas Fernandez-Kim played a ball out wide to his left to Connor Ferguson who sent a low cross into the penalty spot. An on-running Daniel Cervantes got to the ball ahead of his defender and tapped it into goal with his right foot.
