TIMBERS2 SUFFER 4-1 LOSS ON THE ROAD TO REAL MONARCHS T2 face Colorado next in final match of three-straight away from home

HERRIMAN, UTAH – Portland Timbers2 (7-3-4, 26pts) suffered a 4-1 loss on the road to Real Monarchs (5-6-3, 21pts) on Saturday evening. The hosts opened the score in the seventh minute of play before Daniel Cervantes equalized with his club-leading fifth goal of the season in the 31st minute. Real Monarchs scored three unanswered goals in the second half to earn the result. Today's match marked the second of three-straight on the road for Timbers2.

Goal-Scoring Plays

SLC – Omar Marquez, 7th minute: After a ball was played in from the right wing, Omar Marquez struck a right footed shot that deflected off a defender before trickling into the net.

POR – Daniel Cervantes (Noah Santos, Lucas Fernandez-Kim) 31st minute: After winning the ball in the middle of the park, Lucas Fernandez-Kim found Noah Santos on the left wing who played a high cross to find Cervantes's head crashing into the box and knocking the ball over the keeper into the net.

SLC – Wesley Charpie (Liam O'Gara), 64th minute: Liam O'Gara sent in a corner kick that bounced in the box before being turned in at the back post by Wesley Charpie.

SLC – Michael Wentzel, 73rd minute: Following a free kick, Wentzel collected the ball near the top of the box and fired a volley, low and into the near post of goal.

SLC – Lineker Rodrigues dos Santos (Izahi Amparo, Antonio Riquelme) 90+3rd minute: Antonio Riquelme gathered a pass in the middle before lifting a ball to find the head of Izahi Amparo. Amparo squared it across to Lineker Rodrigues dos Santos who tapped the ball into the bottom right corner of the net.
