TIMBERS RESCUE POINT IN 2-2 DRAW AGAINST FC DALLAS AT PROVIDENCE PARK

Kelsy tallies team-leading eighth goal, Felipe Mora equalizes in stoppage time

PORTLAND, Ore. – The Portland Timbers earned a 2-2 comeback result against FC Dallas at Providence Park on Wednesday night. Despite trailing twice in the match, Portland equalized in the 66th minute via a Kevin Kelsy tap in and again in the 92nd minute from Felipe Mora. Portland will face a quick turnaround before hosting Real Salt Lake this Saturday at Providence Park.

Equalizing Duo

With his goal tonight, Kevin Kelsy scored his team-leading eighth goal of the 2026 campaign. Eight goals this season marks a new career MLS high for the Venezuelan striker. Notably, Kelsy scored in a second straight match for Portland after registering three goal contributions (2G, 1A) against Seattle on July 16. Felipe Mora's stoppage time equalizer came as his first goal for Portland since the season opener on February 21, and his 46th goal in his MLS career. Mora also tallied goal contributions in back-to-back matches after recording an assist against Seattle.

Goal-Scoring Plays

POR – Kevin Kelsy, 66th minute: Cole Bassett played a pass across goal that deflected off a defender, bounced off the post and skipped across the goal line before being tapped in by Kevin Kelsy.

DAL – Petar Musa, 88th minute: After receiving the ball in the Timbers' defensive third, Petar Musa drove to the right side of the box and finished a right-footed shot into the lower left corner of the net.

POR – Felipe Mora (Kristoffer Velde), 90+2 minute: Kristoffer Velde collected a loose ball on the left wing before driving and lifting a cross to Felipe Mora near the penalty spot, who took a touch and fired a right-footed shot into the back of the net.
