TIMBERS2 EXTEND SHUTOUT RECORD AGAINST VANCOUVER WHITECAPS FC 2 AT HOME

T2 also earn 10th straight unbeaten result in scoreless draw against Cascadia rivals

PORTLAND, Ore. – Portland Timbers2 (14-4-8, 54pts) extended their historic league-best single-season shutout record to 14 in a scoreless draw against Cascadia rivals Vancouver Whitecaps FC 2 (6-15-5, 27pts) at Providence Park on Monday afternoon. The result also extends Portland's current unbeaten streak to a 10th-straight match. T2 remains at home to host St. Louis CITY2 in their third of three-straight matches at Providence Park on Monday, Sept. 14.

Double-digit Records

Timbers2 extended their MLS NEXT Pro-best unbeaten streak to 10 matches (6-0-4), last suffering a defeat back on June 27. Since then, T2 has outscored opponents 14-5, including six shutout results. Over that stretch, Portland has four games unbeaten at home and six games without a loss on the road, the latter being the longest undefeated road streak in MLS NEXT Pro this season. Notably, with Monday's result, Timbers2 added to their league and club record of clean sheets in a campaign, reaching 14 shutouts.

Notes

- Portland Timbers2 (14-4-8, 54pts) remain in second place in the Western Conference table following today's scoreless result.
- Portland extended its historic MLSNP shutout record to 14 this season.
- Portland also extended its current league-best undefeated streak to a 10th-straight game (6-0-4).
- Portland has four games unbeaten at home (2-0-2) and six games without a loss on the road (4-0-2) over that stretch.
- Timbers2 has outscored opponents 3-1 at home over that span including three clean sheets.
- Notably, six-straight unbeaten away games thus far is the longest undefeated road streak in MLS NEXT Pro this season.
- Timbers2 has outscored the opposition 14-5 over their current unbeaten stretch.
- Sam Joseph has now recorded the second most clean sheets in a single MLS NEXT Pro season with 12 in 21 appearances (all starts).
- Joseph is one shutout shy of tying the MLSNP single-season clean sheet record set in 2023.
- Joseph made three saves today en route to the clean sheet, bringing his total to 62 saves on the campaign.
- Additionally, Joseph made his seventh penalty shootout save of the season.

Next Game
