JOEL WATERMAN SELECTED TO CANADA MEN'S NATIONAL TEAM FOR CONCACAF NATIONS LEAGUE A QUARTERFINALS

Canada to face Guatemala in two-legged series on Nov. 13 and 16

PORTLAND, Ore. – Portland Timbers defender Joel Waterman has been selected to the Canadian Men's National Team for the Concacaf Nations League A Quarterfinals, the Canadian Soccer Association announced today. Team Canada will face Guatemala in a two-legged series to earn a spot in the Nations League A Semifinals.

Canada will first travel to Guatemala City for the first leg of the quarterfinal bout on Nov. 13 at Estadio Manuel Felipe Carrera before hosting the second leg on Nov. 16 in Toronto, Ontario, at BMO Field.

A native of British Columbia, Canada, Waterman has represented the senior Canadian National Team 17 times. Notably, Waterman was a member of the 2022 and 2026 Canadian FIFA World Cup squads. Since arriving to Portland in September of this year, Waterman has made nine appearances (eight starts) for the Timbers.
